I Will Exalt My God and King

1 I will exalt my God and King, and I will
2 On your most glorious majesty and on your 3 The Lord our God is rich in grace, tender to 4 All you have made will praise you, Lord; your mighty ev'ry praise your name. I will extol you every deeds my mind will dwell. Your deeds will fall the world with acts your saints will show, till all the peoples on the day and evermore your praise proclaim. You, Lord, are awe, and all your greatness I will tell. Your matchless rise; his love and kindness are most great. The Lord is earth the splendor of your kingdom know. Eternal greatly to be praised; your greatness is beyond all goodness and your grace your people will commend.

5 The Lord is faithful to his word; he will extend his gracious hand.
The Lord upholds the faltering feet and makes the weak securely stand.
The eyes of all look up to you for food and drink, which you supply;
your open hand is bountiful, and every need you satisfy.

6 The Lord is just in all his ways; in all his works the Lord is kind,
and all who call on him in truth in him a present helper find.
He will fulfill the heart's desire of those who fear him and obey.
The Lord will surely hear their cry, will save them when to him they pray.

7 The Lord in grace preserves his saints, redeeming those who love his name.
The wicked he will overthrow and put his enemies to shame.
My mouth will sing the glorious praise of God, whom earth and heaven adore.
Let every creature praise his name forever and evermore!