

Team 2: DIGEST THIS

Photo Credit: Harrison Rice

Clean Water Plant Planview Layout

Team Members (left to right): Jacob Melton (CE), Heidi Ledford (CE), Michael Hansen (CE), Hattie Greydanus (CE), Nathaniel Sculley (CE)

Due to increasing costs, the City of Wyoming Clean Water Plant (CWP) is interested in alternatives to their current process of biosolids disposal. The CWP is primarily interested in implementing an anaerobic digestion or incineration facility to replace existing lime stabilization, land application, and dewatering. The plant is also concerned with emerging chemical contaminants such as perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS) and pharmaceuticals and personal care products (PPCP).