B. Development:

An abridged version of the trial and martyrdom of Michael Sattler has been prepared.

Students have read the section on radicals in Western Experience, Chambers and the reader’s theatre version of the trial. The main roles were assigned in advance.

“What would you die for?” is an anticipatory set on the board.

C. Closure (Summary):

Whole class discussion of “What would you die for?”

Think-pair-share on Dirk Willems illustration. Whole class debriefing
Readers theater of trial and martyrdom of Michael Sattler.
Debriefing by the whole class.
Exit ticket: What makes the Anabaptists so radical?

D. Assignment:
Essay question on test. Compare and contrast the Anabaptist with another Protestant group.

E. Evaluation:
How many students actively participated in class? Which questions remain unanswered?
