Enjoy a silica mud facial mask at their walk-up spa as well as a free drink of choice while you peruse the extensive lagoon. After time to relax and unwind, we continue our drive into Reykjavík for a welcome dinner. (D)

15, Sunday Snæfellsnes Peninsula, Stykkishólmur

Today we transfer to the northern Snæfellsnes Peninsula, known for its dramatic landscapes and home to the Snæfellsjökull glacier-capped volcano. We explore the area's highlights seeing Arnarstapi, the old trading post and fishing village. We then have time to walk (approx. 1.5 miles) along the beautiful coastline, seeing views of Lóndrangar basalt cliffs sticking out from the sea. We continue to Bjarnarhöfn Shark Museum to learn about the Greenland shark's biology and their historical importance to Iceland. Not only that, but we visit the drying house which includes a tasting of this traditional delicacy with a snap of brennivín (Iceland's distilled liquor). We end the day in picturesque Stykkishólmur, the northernmost tip of the peninsula and the largest town on the Snæfellsness Peninsula. While here, we see amazing views over the Breiðafjörður fjord with thousands of small islands. (B, D)

16, Monday Borgarfjörður, Koluglkúfur, Varmahlíð

Leaving the peninsula, we head to Borgarfjörður before continuing to Koluglkúfur Canyon. We'll see the majestic falls at the canyon, contrasting the greenery all around. En route, we visit a horse ranch in Skagafjörður to enjoy a traditional Icelandic horse show. Learning about the story of this remarkable breed of horses, we hear about the first settlers from Scandinavia around 900 AD. We end our day in the Varmahlíð area for a one-night stay. Tonight, we have a group dinner to conclude our day. (B, D)

17, Tuesday Hofsós, Siglufjörður, Akureyri

Transferring to the seaside village of Hofsós, we have a leisurely walk to visit the Icelandic Emigration Center, learning about the immigration of Icelanders between 1870-1914. Afterward, we continue to Siglufjörður, the country's northernmost town. A quaint historic fishing town, it is famous for its herring and natural beauty. We visit the Herring Era Museum, learning about the fishing and salting processes before continuing our journey to Eyjafjörður valley, home of Akureyri. Known to locals as the capital of north Iceland, we enjoy views of the largest town outside of the Reykjavík area. (B, L)

18, Wednesday Akureyri

Today is free to explore the city more. Take in the waterfront views, the symbolic Akureyri church, or stroll through Old Town. Souvenir shop or try local Icelandic delicacies in the city's cafes and restaurants. The day is at your own pace and up to you! (B)

19, Thursday Goðafoss, Lake Mývatn

Visiting the fourth largest river in Iceland, we see Goðafoss waterfall located in the river Skjálfandafjót. Translated to "waterfall of the gods," this waterfall is one of the most spectacular in the country falling from a height of 39 feet over a width of 98 feet. We end our day in Mývatn. Before touring the surrounding area, we visit Lake Mývatn. Its shores are indented with inlets and over 50 small islets, creating a unique look. Tonight, we have a group dinner together. (B, D)

- 1 Akureyri
  - 2 Near Lake Mývatn
  - 3 Seljalandsfoss
  - 4 Gullfoss

20, Friday
Dettifoss Waterfall

Another day, another waterfall as we visit Dettifoss. As the most powerful waterfall in Europe, around 200 meters of water per second plunges over the edge at a height of 45 meters. We pass from north Iceland to the east, driving through the desert-like area of Mõðrudalsöræfi, and stop at Fjalladýrð café en route for a traditional Icelandic meat soup and Icelandic kleina (donuts) for dessert. (B, D)

21, Saturday
Höfn, Jökulsárlón, Skaftafell

We visit the small Icelandic fishing town of Höfn, meaning “harbor.” It’s home to just over two thousand people. The town is one of the few natural harbors in the country with the coast being beachy and relatively even. At the tip of its own peninsula, it is almost completely surrounded by the ocean and thus can freeze over in extremely cold winter months. While here, we have a beautiful view of the largest glacier in Europe, the Vatnajökull. Following, we visit Jökulsárlón (“Glacier River Lagoon”), which is the famous proglacial lake in Iceland. Small icebergs are present year round. We can see the various shades of turquoise as the water reflects off the ice. We might even be able to spot seals enjoying their beautiful environment. (B, D)

22, Sunday
Skaftafell National Park, Vík, Skógar

Today we travel to Skaftafell National Park to visit its stunning glaciers, black sand beaches, as well as some of the tallest peaks in the country. One of the treks through the park will bring you to Svartifoss waterfall (< 3.6 miles). Surrounding the waterfall are black basalt columns varying in length. As we continue to make our way around the south coast, we stop in the town of Vík which has only 300 residents. Vík provides a great place to recharge and rest while still being near beautiful landscapes. Finally, we end our day in Skógar. Close by is the Volcanic glacier of Mýrdalsjökull to see as well. (B, D)

23, Monday
Skógafoss, Seljalandsfoss, Gullfoss, Þingvellir National Park, Reykjavík

On our last full day in Iceland, we pack in our last waterfall stops at Skógafoss and Seljalandsfoss waterfalls before visiting Gullfoss, known as the Golden Waterfall. On sunny days, this natural beauty radiates vibrant rainbow colors in all directions. Following, we visit the nearby geyser and geothermal area of Þingvellir National Park before returning to Reykjavík this evening. (B, D)

24, Tuesday
Return to Grand Rapids

This morning we transfer to the airport for our connecting flights back to Grand Rapids. (B)

General Data Protection Policy. We collect personal data, including, but not limited to legal name, gender, date of birth, passport information, dietary needs, and mobility concerns for the purpose of making travel arrangements on your behalf. We share this information with suppliers as it relates to the operation of your trip/tour. By signing the registration form/agreeing to the terms in TRIP, you agree to sharing your personal data for the purpose of making travel agreements on your behalf.

The cost of your tour includes:

Air transportation roundtrip from Grand Rapids to Reykjavik with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier's code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration's (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. TSA's privacy policy, as well as additional details, can be found at tsa.gov using the keywords Secure Flight. Witte takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many cities, sightseeing is often done on foot or via public transportation.

Accommodations in moderate first-class to standard first-class hotels based on two people sharing a room with private facilities. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class properties are selected. The supplement for single accommodations is $1,145. If you register alone but want a roommate, we will do our best to assign one. If a single room must be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Meals. Breakfast daily and lunch and dinner as indicated in the itinerary. Lunches and dinners do not include beverages.

Tour Personnel. An English-speaking Icelandic tour manager to accompany the group from arrival in Reykjavik until departure. The tour manager will be assisted by local guides as needed.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan. For your convenience, Witte Travel offers a travel protection plan designed by Travelix Insurance Services. This travel protection can be purchased at any time prior to making the final payment for your tour. To be eligible for the waiver of pre-existing medical condition exclusion, the protection plan must be purchased within 15 days from the time you make your initial trip deposit, provided you are medically fit to travel at the time of purchase and full trip cost is insured. The pre-existing medical exclusion applies to you, your traveling companion, business partner and traveling or non-traveling family member. For all traveling companions to benefit from the pre-existing condition waiver, each must enroll in travel protection within 15 days of initial deposit and meet qualifications for the pre-existing condition waiver. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport book to travel internationally. If you already have a passport book, check its expiration date now since the country/visited on this tour requires passports to be valid for at least six months beyond the traveler's intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport book or need a new one, apply as soon as possible as processing times can take up to six months. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver's license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to exit a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: <https://www.us-passport-service-guide.com/minor-travel-consent-form.html>The sample form is a guide only. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. Important note: Parents are responsible to contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm all travel entry and exit requirements, which may include obtaining additional notarized documentation.

HEALTH DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. You are responsible to make absolutely certain to have the proper immunizations and required documentation of such immunizations before travel. Witte shall not assume responsibility for the accuracy of health requirements or vaccination documentation prior to departure or upon landing at the final destination. See your health practitioner for advice. Prior to travel, required inoculations, if any, must be recorded by your health practitioner on a valid vaccination certificate, and you must carry for proof of inoculation where required. If you are concerned about taking any medications or receiving certain inoculations, and adequate timing of such inoculations relative to your travel booking, consult your health practitioner BEFORE booking. Check the U.S. State Department websites <http://travel.state.gov> for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, the USA Centers for Disease Control <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list/> and the World Health Organization <http://www.who.int/en/> relating to health issues.

Luggage allowance. You may take one suitcase with a maximum size of 62 linear inches (height plus width plus depth) and weight of 50 lbs. You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 25 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or changes in group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature on the registration form indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.

Credit card payments. Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express credit cards are accepted for the deposit. The deposit charge is processed shortly after receipt of your registration form.

The group's airport transfers on the arrival and return days will be timed to the group's flight schedule. Land-only participants may need to arrange for their own airport transfers. Contact Witte for information and costs on options for private transfers. Witte cannot be responsible for any inconveniences to land-only participants resulting from changes in the group's flight schedule.
