12, Thursday

Depart Grand Rapids

Today we meet at the Gerald Ford International Airport for our overnight flights to South Africa. The journey has begun! (meals in-flight)

13, Friday

Johannesburg

Welcome to South Africa! After arriving and gathering our luggage, we'll meet our driver to then transfer to our hotel to freshen up before an independent dinner and evening. Take the evening to refresh and adapt to a new time zone. (B and L in-flight)

14, Saturday

Johannesburg, Soweto

Our first full day is spent in Greater Johannesburg, the financial hub of Southern Africa. We visit the (Apartheid 'black') township of Soweto. Both Nelson Mandela and Archbishop Desmond Tutu lived here at one point. We tour Soweto and enjoy lunch on its famous Vilakazi Street. Next, we visit the excellent Apartheid Museum where we'll have ample time to browse the museum's exhibits at our own pace. In the evening there's an early group dinner next to the square of Nelson Mandela. If you're still feeling the effects of jet lag, you'll be able to turn in early this evening. (B, L, D)

15, Sunday

Kgautswane

Today, we depart early for Kgautswane. After stopping for an independent lunch, we continue onwards through the rolling hills to the Panorama Route which follows the edge of the Blyde River Canyon. Along the route, enjoy spectacular views from World's View (God's Window), visit Bourke's Luck Potholes, and marvel at the canyon below at Three Rondavels viewpoint. After taking in the view, we go off the beaten track and into Kgautswane where we meet up with Clara Masinga or 'Mamma Clara' and her family. Some group members will stay in comfortably appointed traditional 'rondavels' at her place. The rest of the group is transferred to their accommodations for dinner and a good night's rest. (B, D)

16, Monday

Kgautswane

Having a full day in Kgautswane, we'll explore the authentic community with Mamma Clara and other locals. This is rural Africa where traditional and modern values, technologies, religion, and farming mix into the brew that it is today. Life is tough and beautiful at the same time. Hardship and joy live very closely together here. Today will reveal a side of South Africa's kaleidoscope of life that few other outsiders get to experience up close and personal. Ultimately, it's the interactions with the people who live here that will leave you with fond memories. (B, L, D)

17, Tuesday

Namakgale, Kruger National Park

After an early breakfast, we meet back at Mamma Clara's place to say our goodbyes and start our journey through irrigation farmlands, wilderness, and rural settlements before descending into the Lowveld. We arrive in Namakgale, a rural area where we meet Rhody Kgohloane at one of her community projects. After an early lunch at Rhody's house, we visit Kruger National Park. The Park is the size of a small country and is home to an amazing diversity of fauna and flora. The rest of our afternoon is spent on a slow game drive en route to our overnight destination. We pull into our Rest Camp shortly before sunset. After catching views of the Olifants River (Elephant River) and the wilderness beyond before darkness descends, we settle into our thatch-roofed cottages and enjoy dinner at the camp's restaurant. (B, L, D)

18, Wednesday

Kruger National Park

Carpe diem! We're leaving the camp early this morning to head southwards into the park. After stopping at Satara Rest Camp for an early breakfast, our drive will be at leisure allowing us to search for wildlife and stop to encounter any special sightings. It's likely at this point in our day, we have already encountered elephants, giraffes, zebras, and impalas. Hoping to spot rhino, lion, and African buffalo; we continue our search for the incredibly rich biodiversity in Kruger, which includes over 500 bird species – some of which are only found here. Following, we should arrive at the Tshokwane Picnic Site around mid-morning. After time to eat, drink, and relax in the shade, we'll continue further. The last stretch of our drive brings us to our overnight accommodation in time for lunch. Enjoy an independent lunch before we move into our accommodations. For those of us who want more, our tour coach will head out again for a game drive mid-afternoon. If choosing to stay back, siesta in the cottage or take in the surrounding wilderness from the comfort of the restaurant's river-side deck. Tonight, we'll enjoy dinner together as a group. (B, D)

19, Thursday

Namibia

This morning we depart early and see if we can catch any last glimpses of wildlife as we exit the park. We head west to the Kruger Mpumalanga International Airport where we board our flight to Windhoek, Namibia. On arriving, we meet our Namibian tour guide and driver who will accompany us for the duration of our Namibian journey. We check into our hotel before enjoying a group dinner this evening. (B, L in-flight, D)

20, Friday Sesriem

Today, we leave the capital city behind and head southwest. Along our route, our surroundings become even more barren as we arrive at our desert lodge. After checking into our rooms, we enjoy an independent lunch at the lodge's restaurant while enjoying the view of the waterhole and desert beyond. The afternoon is at leisure to recover in your unit, cool down in the swimming pool, browse for curios, or enjoy a drink. Late afternoon we set off on a nature drive just before sunset. Enjoy a drink out in nature on the lodge's private reserve, while watching the sunset over the Namib Desert. Tonight, we dine together under the stars. (B, D)

21, Saturday Sesriem

Departing early from our hotel, we enter Naukluft National Park just after sunrise. Following the course of the ephemeral Tsauchab River, we'll arrive at our destination, Sossusvlei. Being a drainage basin, Sossusvlei is almost always a dry clay/salt pan. It marks the end of the Tsauchab River and only receives water on the rare occasions that the river flows. After arriving, we head to Deadvlei trailhead. It's a three-quarter-mile sandy hike over a low sand dune into the 'vlei' or wetland/marsh. The centuries-old dead and black sun-scorched remnants of camel thorn trees on the white pan, combined with the red sand-dune backdrop make for spectacular photographs. For those with the energy, another shorter hike across the pan will deliver you to the base of Big Daddy, a monstrous dune over 1,000 feet high. Not many make it to the top but journeying a short distance up the dune provides breathtaking views coming down. Following, we return to our lodge before the intense heat of the day hits and in time for an independent lunch. Later, we head to the Sesriem Canyon close by. Being a narrow canyon cut into the rock by the Tsauchab River, we explore the canyon on foot. Tonight, we enjoy dinner back at the lodge before returning for the evening amidst the desert calm. (B, D)

22, Sunday Solitaire, Moon Landscape, Swakopmund

Say goodbye to magical Sesriem, today we travel to Swakopmund on the Atlantic Ocean coast. On our journey, we stop at Solitaire, a remote settlement where we stop for a quick bite to eat and to stretch our legs over a cup of coffee. Continuing, we cross a mountain pass, descend on the other side to cross the Kuiseb River, and continue through rocky and vast open landscapes. Our next stop is at The Moon Landscape, a desolate area resembling the surface of the moon. After taking in the unearthly landscape, we have a short distance left before arriving in Swakopmund. Namibia was a German colony for about a century until 1915. Much of the town's architecture reflects this German heritage and the language is still widely spoken. Being central to the beach and many restaurants and cafes, our accommodation for the next two nights will be a great spot for an independent evening before we enjoy a group dinner. (B, L, D)

23, Monday

Walvis Bay, Swakopmund

Today we head into the neighboring town of Walvis Bay. After driving south with the coast on our right and the Namib desert dunes to our left, we arrive at the town's harbor to board a catamaran cruising vessel and head out onto the bay. Passing oyster farms, Pelican Point's landmark lighthouse, and 60,000 resident cape fur seals, there's a good chance we'll spot larger mammals such as the Southern Right and Humpback whales. Additionally, dolphins, Mola Molas, and Leatherback turtles have also made appearances. During our cruise, we'll enjoy some refreshments including coffee, tea, and sparkling wine as well as desserts, savory snacks, and fresh oysters! We return to Swakopmund mid-afternoon to have the rest of the evening at leisure. Enjoy exploring the town on foot; restaurant recommendations will be provided. (B, L-onboard)

Damaraland

On departing Swakopmund, we take our leave of the West coast and head inland. We have Namibia's highest mountain, Brandberg, at 8,500 feet on the horizon as we head into Damaraland. After arriving, we visit the Damara Living Museum, a cultural village depicting traditional Damara life. It is both educational, as well as providing income for rural Damara people. The village also contributes to preserving traditions and skills. We will be introduced to the history of the Damara, their traditional way of life, their mythology, and their traditional dances. Following, we continue to Khorixas Petrified Forest. Although not a full forest, the site contains magnificent samples of petrified tree stumps. Our last stop for the day is at Twyfelfontein Country lodge. The area is home to the Twyfelfontein Rock Engravings, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Our lodge is an oasis in the desert where we can settle in and relax, perhaps spending some time in the pool or sipping a drink on the deck. Enjoy the evening! (B, L, D)

25, Wednesday

Etosha

This morning we depart early for Etosha Safari Lodge. Check in and enjoy lunch before we depart for nearby Etosha National Park. While spending the afternoon exploring Etosha, we visit water holes along the edges of the massive salt pans. The vegetation and topography of Etosha are vastly different from that of Kruger Park. In general, it's easier to find wildlife in Etosha, thus we should experience a lot in a short amount of time here. Later, we exit Etosha and head back to our lodge for a group dinner and a leisurely night. (B, L, D)

26, Thursday

Windhoek

After an early breakfast, we head back to Etosha. We spend another half-day in the park, marveling at the wildlife and the landscapes that are so unique to Etosha. Following, we make our way to Windhoek, where our Namibian adventure started. After arriving in Windhoek late afternoon, we will join for a group dinner before heading off to bed as tomorrow will be another early departure. (B, L, D)

27, Friday

Cape Town

Our Namibian journey comes to an end as we board our flight from Windhoek to Cape Town, South Africa. We meet our driver and guide for the rest of our tour. Our first visit is the Cape Winelands where we visit the historic and attractive towns of Franschhoek and Stellenbosch. After time to explore both towns on foot and sample their street cafes, we will dine at a top-notch wine estate for lunch and a wine tasting. Following, we head to Cape Town proper and the highly rated Victoria & Alfred Waterfront where our hotel is located. Tonight, we end our evening with a group dinner. (B, L, D)

28, Saturday

Hout Bay, Cape of Good Hope, Simon's Town, Cape Town

Leaving the hotel this morning, we follow the coastline through Sea Point, Bantry Bay, and one of the most expensive neighborhoods in South Africa, Clifton. We briefly disembark from the coach at Maiden's Cove to photograph the spectacular Twelve Apostles, the eighteen mountain buttresses beyond Table Mountain. On arrival in Hout Bay, we embark on a cruise to the nearby 'Seal' (Duiker) Island before returning to Hout Bay. From here, we continue further along the bay's rugged mountainous coastline, utilizing the breathtakingly scenic Chapmans Peak Drive. After stopping at the main viewpoint to snap some photos, we continue with elevated views over the Atlantic Ocean. We pass the picturesque hamlets of Misty Cliffs and Scarborough before arriving at the Cape of Good Hope Nature Reserve, within which lies the southernmost section of the peninsula. We have time to walk along the paved pathway, onto the rocky ridgeline, and to the old lighthouse that sits atop it. There are options for an independent lunch, or if up for an adventure, a group can hike down to Diaz Beach and towards Cape of Good Hope. Approximately one mile long, light sack lunches will be prepared independently. After spending a short time at the beach, the motorcoach will arrive with the rest of the group to exit the reserve. Following, we stop in Simon's Town to experience the African Penguin protected area at Boulder's Beach. After taking in a week's worth of scenery in a single day, we arrive back at our hotel. Later this evening we set off to a special location for our farewell dinner. (B, D)

Visit Victoria Falls!

Consider extending your stay in Africa. Travel to the legendary Victoria Falls on the border between Zimbabwe and Zambia. Contact Witte for more information and arrangement options.

29, Sunday

Depart South Africa

Today we drive up the foothills of Table Mountain to the Lower Cable Way Station. Here, we have a guided tour to give context to the amazing views below before having time to browse the flat 'table top' of the mountain. Following, we walk to the nearby waterfront before hopping aboard the ferry to Robben Island, known for being where the majority of Nelson Mandela's political incarceration was. From the island's harbor, we board our bus and have a short tour across part of the island. Our guide will fill us in on the history of the small settlement, the prison, and the lime quarry among other things. Following, we head to the section of the prison where Nelson Mandela and some of his political comrades were held. Amongst other points of interest, we get to view Mandela's cell. It's a remarkable experience and we have lots to ponder as we board the ferry for the return journey. Next, we visit the Kirstenbosch National Botanical Gardens. Known for flora indigenous to Southern Africa, it boasts over 5,000 species. We have a short orientation hike to experience the natural flora and sit down for refreshments at the tea garden. Time permitting, we then return to our hotel to freshen up before heading to the airport where we start the journey home.

For all traveling companions to benefit from the pre-existing condition waiver, each must enroll in travel protection within 15 days of initial deposit and meet qualifications for the pre-existing condition waiver. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport to travel internationally. If you already have a passport, check its expiration date now since South Africa and Namibia require passports to be valid at least six months beyond the traveler's intended return date. All non-South African passport holders are required to have two (2) consecutive empty Visa pages (blank endorsement/amendment pages are not sufficient) in their passport for each entry into South Africa. You will be denied entry and forced to return to your point of origin if you do not have two blank visa pages. Namibia requires travelers to have at least three completely blank pages in their passports for entry. If your passport is due to expire earlier or you do not have sufficient blank pages, you will need to obtain a new one. When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver's license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to exit a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: <https://www.us-passport-service-guide.com/minor-travel-consent-form.html>The sample form is a guide only. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. Important note: Parents are responsible to contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm all travel entry and exit requirements, which may include obtaining additional notarized documentation. There are special requirements for minors traveling through South African ports of entry. Visit the Department of Home Affairs website at <http://www.dha.gov.za/index.php/civic-services/traveling-with-children> for the most up-to-date requirements for traveling with minors to or from South Africa.

These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 25 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. Witte reserves the right to accept or reject any person as a member of the tour and to expel from the tour any participant whose conduct or condition is incompatible with the interest of the group.

Land-only participants. If you wish to make your own flight arrangements, contact Witte for the land-only cost at least 90 days prior to departure. Participants who make their own flight arrangements are strongly encouraged to coordinate their flight schedules with the group's flight schedule and to use the same airports. The group's airport transfers on the arrival and return days will be timed to the group's flight schedule. Land-only participants may need to arrange for their own airport transfers. Contact Witte for information and costs on options for private transfers. Witte cannot be responsible for any inconveniences to land-only participants resulting from changes in the group's flight schedule. Participants who change their status to land-only less than 90 days prior to departure may be subject to penalties imposed by the airlines.

Domestic flight connections. Note on your registration form if you would like to fly to and from the international departure city. You will be contacted with schedule options and costs. Witte must receive requests for connecting flights at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special flight arrangements. Note on your registration form if you would like to extend your stay and/or depart from and/or return to another city. The number of passengers who can deviate from the group's flight schedule is restricted. You will be contacted to let you know if the arrangements you requested are possible and to advise you of schedule options and costs. Upon confirmation of your special arrangements, a nonrefundable service fee of $75 per person will be added to your account along with any additional air or land costs that may apply. In the event of cancellation, the service fee and any nonrefundable portion of special air or land arrangements made for you will be added to the penalties noted under "Cancellations and Refunds." Witte must receive requests for special flight arrangements at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special meal requests and food allergies. Note special meal requests and food allergies on your registration form. Witte cannot be responsible if special requests are not met but we will pass them on to the airlines, hotels and restaurants. If you have dietary restrictions or food allergies, be sure to carry your medications with you at all times. Also, discuss your special needs with your tour personnel and ask the wait staff about the foods you are served.

Mobility Concerns. Sightseeing on Witte tours almost always includes walking. Visits to historical places often mean climbing stairs and walking on uneven surfaces or cobblestones. The Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") is only applicable within the U.S., and facilities for disabled individuals are limited outside its borders. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance. Motorized scooters and wheelchairs are unsuitable for many trips. Transportation services, including many tour motor coaches, are not equipped with wheelchair ramps. Handicap accessibility is not always available. Witte tour personnel are not able to provide attendant services.

Consult your physician if you have any concerns about your ability to participate.

Time away from the tour. Advise Witte in writing at least 45 days before departure if you plan to spend some time away from the tour. Wherever possible, you will be credited for missed hotel nights.

Final tour documents—including itinerary, hotel list, passenger list, flight schedules with departure instructions, and luggage tags—are sent about 10 days prior to departure. Flight tickets are usually made available at the airport at check-in.

Limitations of Responsibility and Disclosure. The trip outlined herein has been contracted with Afrilux. Witte acts solely as a booking agent for disclosed principal supplier hotels, airlines, air charters, bus companies, ground transportation, cruise lines, boat purveyors or owners, and other independent contractors providing accommodations, transportation, and/or other services ("supplier(s)"), and is not the source or provider of the travel services. Each of these supplier companies is an independent entity with its own management, and is not subject to the control of Witte. Participant is advised that the suppliers whose names appear in travel documentation are those actually responsible for providing the travel services purchased, and consents to the use of those suppliers, and understands and agrees each supplier's Terms and Conditions are contained in printed form and are set forth on their respective Web sites, which govern the transaction. All bookings are accepted by Witte as agent for the travel suppliers on your itinerary. The transportation, accommodations and other services provided by the identified sea, ground, and air operator suppliers offered are subject to the terms and conditions contained in the tickets, exchange orders or vouchers issued by them and/or their suppliers, including Terms and Conditions on their respective Web sites.

BECAUSE WITTE ACTS AS AGENT FOR DISCLOSED PRINCIPAL SUPPLIERS, AND DOES NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTROL THE OPERATIONS OF SUCH INDEPENDENT OPERATORS AND SUPPLIERS, YOU AGREE WITTE IS NOT LIABLE FOR ANY PERSONAL INJURY OR PROPERTY DAMAGE, WHICH MAY ARISE OUT OF THESE SERVICES. WITTE HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY LIABILITY WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL OR INDIRECT DAMAGES, IN CONNECTION WITH THE GOODS OR SERVICES PROVIDED BY ANY PRINCIPAL SUPPLIER BOOKING THROUGH WITTE'S OFFICE OR WEB SITE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LIABILITY FOR ANY ACT, ERROR, OMISSION, INJURY, LOSS, ACCIDENT, DELAY OR IRREGULARITY WHICH MAY BE INCURRED THROUGH THE FAULT, NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL ACTS, OMISSIONS OR OTHERWISE OF SUCH SUPPLIER, OR OF ANY SUPPLIER OR THEIR RESPECTIVE EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, SERVANTS, OR REPRESENTATIVES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THEIR FAILURE TO DELIVER OR THEIR PARTIAL OR INADEQUATE DELIVERY OF SERVICES, FUEL INCREASES, AND OTHER MATTERS OUTSIDE OF WITTE CONTROL, AND PARTICIPANT HEREBY EXONERATES WITTE FROM ANY LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO THE SAME.

Witte, its agents, sponsors, organizers and employees shall not be responsible for any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay, irregularity or expense arising from strikes, weather, sickness, acts of war or terrorism, governmental restrictions or regulations or from any act or omission on the part of any individual or company furnishing transportation, accommodations or any other services to the tour participants; absent gross negligence, Witte shall not be responsible for any injuries, death, damages, loss or delay by any means of transportation or by reason of any event beyond its actual control.

Weather conditions, including but not limited to the presence or absence of snow, sunshine, and rainfall are not guaranteed to occur or not occur, and are outside of Witte's control. Volcanic eruptions, ash clouds, and wind may be characterized as an adverse weather condition or a natural disaster by suppliers and your travel insurance company, which is beyond the control of Witte.

Witte shall not assume any responsibility for any air and/or ground schedule changes.

Witte reserves the right to make alterations in the itinerary as it deems necessary.

Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means, in relation to Witte, any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of Witte, (including, but without limitation, acts of God, explosion, tidal waves and flood, tempest, forceful wind, earthquakes, fire or accident, hostilities, war or threat of war declared or undeclared, acts or threats of terrorism, sabotage, insurrection, riots, strikes, civil disturbance, requisition, epidemic, sickness, quarantine, government intervention, invasion, act of foreign enemies, mobilization, embargo, weather conditions, defects in machinery and vehicles, delay, wildlife, contamination by radio-activity from any nuclear fuel or from any nuclear waste, or other untoward occurrences).

Witte shall not be deemed to be in breach of these terms and conditions or otherwise be liable to you, by reason of delay in performance, or by non-performance, of any of its obligations hereunder to the extent that any such delay or non-performance is due to any Force Majeure.

If Witte, and/or any of its travel suppliers, are affected by Force Majeure, they shall be entitled to, and may in their sole and absolute discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the trip. Payment of any refund by Witte to you as a result of the non-performance of any obligations due to Force Majeure shall remain in its sole and absolute discretion, although Witte shall use its reasonable efforts to reimburse you where possible. However, Witte shall be entitled to deduct from any refund recoverable the reasonable actual and potential costs to Witte of the Force Majeure and applicable cancellation fees.

Regarding civil unrest, once Witte has investigated the prevailing situation, as it deems fit, it shall remain in Witte's sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the trip. You may in such circumstances cancel the trip subject to Witte's and each supplier's terms and conditions.

In case of insufficient participation, geopolitical, or natural cause, or other circumstances beyond its control to the extent travel services cannot be provided wholly or partially, Witte may cancel the tour. In such cases, Witte will use its best efforts to supply alternative services and accommodations, and no refunds will be granted provided that the alternatives are comparable to the original services and accommodations included in the tour cost. In the event of cancellation of the tour by Witte, its liability will be limited to a refund in full of all monies paid by the participants. If available, Witte will offer an alternative trip, which the participants may accept or reject.
