Congratulations on your admittance to the Entrada Scholars Program at Calvin University! Entrada is a unique experience, providing high school students the opportunity to enroll in a college course for credit while living on campus. In order to make Entrada the best possible experience, we expect students to adhere to the guidelines listed below. Before you enroll in Entrada, please confirm your understanding and agreement to adhere to the specific Entrada Scholars Program policies by reading this document carefully and signing where indicated.

Entrada Standard Sanction Policy
Any of the following violations will result in automatic removal from the Entrada Scholars Program.

- Alcohol Use/Abuse
- Sexual Misconduct of any kind
- Sexual Activity of any kind
- Drug Use/Abuse
- Safety Violations
- Tobacco or Vape Use/Abuse
- Involvement with Pornography
- Academic Integrity Violations
- Weapons Violations (including pocket knives and pepper sprays)

Violations of other Entrada policies will result in a written infraction to document the incident. Infractions will be addressed by Resident Assistants and referred to Resident Directors, the Academic Director, or the Program Director when necessary.

The Entrada Scholars Program reserves the right to adjust or amend the list of sanctions as needed to protect the program and its participants

We have read and understand that violating any of the above infractions will result in automatic removal from the program.
