HAWAI
Volcanoes in the Sun

February 7 - 19, 2023

Hosted by Gerry Van Kooten
Get ready for warmer temperatures as you join Gerry Van Kooten, geologist and volcanic rock expert, on CALL/CAA’s expedition to Hawaii. Made up of 132 volcanic islands, Hawaii is the world’s largest island chain. On this tour, you’ll visit three of the seven inhabited Hawaiian islands: Hawaii (also known as the Big Island), Kauai, and Oahu. This adventure combines volcanic exploration with not-to-miss Hawaiian sightseeing. You’ll spend multiple days in and around Hawai’i Volcanoes National Park. See the ever-changing landscape as Gerry guides you around the Kilauea volcano. Here, you’ll gain invaluable insights as you discuss the recent lava flow.

You’ll also see many of Hawaii’s beautiful green and black beaches, spend a morning touring a coffee plantation, and enjoy sightseeing tours of Kona and Hilo. The itinerary also includes waterfalls, a wildlife refuge, and Imiloa astronomy center. If this isn’t enough, there will be free time to enjoy the sunshine, relax on a beach, or possibly go snorkeling. Finally, your trip ends with a visit to the Pearl Harbor WWII Memorial and Honolulu.

Don’t miss this custom designed Hawaiian adventure.

Space is limited.

February 2023

07, Tuesday
Depart, Arrive Kona
Meeting at the Grand Rapids airport, we check in for our flights to Kailua-Kona, the largest town on the Big Island of Hawaii. After our arrival we check in at our hotel and we’ll enjoy an Aloha Orientation Dinner with light pupus (appetizers) and refreshments. (D)

08, Wednesday
Kona, Punaluu, Volcanoes National Park
After breakfast at the hotel this morning, we will take a walk to visit a few nearby sites, including Mokuakaiua Church, the oldest Christian church in the Hawaiian Islands, and the King Kamehameha Hotel and heiau (ancient Hawaiian temple). Mid-morning, we will board our motorcoach and make several stops, including the Naalehu Bakery and time permitting, the black sand beach at Punaluʻu. Continuing by bus we head to Volcanoes National Park and Volcano House Hotel, our home base for the next two nights. Dinner reservations are made at the Volcano House this evening should you wish to have your independent dinner here this evening. (B)

09, Thursday
South Point, Volcanoes National Park
Today we head to South Point—the southernmost point of the Big Island (and the United States), where we will see wind farms, impressive cliffs overlooking the Pacific, ancient fishing sites, and green sand, plus get an introduction to how the Hawaiian Islands were formed. After our visit, we’ll have a picnic-style lunch and then after, hike on trails through the Kilauea Iki crater. Dinner reservations are made at the Volcano House this evening should you wish to have your independent dinner here this evening. (B, L)

Akaka Falls
Punaluʻu black sand beach
Lava flowing from the Kilauea volcano
Thurston Lava Tube
Cover: Nā Pali coast, Kauai
10, Friday
Volcanoes National Park, Hilo

Another adventurous day in Volcanoes National Park. Today we see the Thurston Lava Tube and drive the Chain of Craters Road where we will see lava flows along the coastline; examine spectacular flow features where lava cascaded over steep cliffs (pali); and view lava flows covering the asphalt highway. We will see Holei Arch, lava tree molds, and the spectacular Mauna Ulu crater. Today we will hike mostly on trails. Midday we’ll enjoy a picnic lunch in the park. This evening we check in to our group hotel in Hilo, the Grand Naniloa Hotel, where the remainder of the day is at leisure. (B, L)

11, Saturday
Hilo

This morning we start with a visit to Lili‘uokalani Park and Gardens, the largest Japanese Gardens outside of Japan. After visiting the Hilo Farmers’ Market, we will have time to explore Kamehameha Avenue with its wooden storefronts, art galleries, small museums, and a very nice ukulele shop. We visit the Imiloa Astronomy Center in the afternoon, then return to Hilo. (B)

12, Sunday
Hilo, Kapoho, Hilo

In the morning we will visit the imposing statue of King Kamehameha on the Hilo waterfront and discuss his ascent to the ruler of the Big Island and eventual ruler of all the islands. We will also see Rainbow Falls and the Naha Stone. A stop will be made at the historic Haili Congregational Church in downtown Hilo for those who wish to attend the worship service. Haili was established in 1824 and grew dramatically under the early Congregational missionary Titus Coan, reaching over 10,000 members, and was possibly the largest church in the world at the time. After a grocery stop and independent lunch, we head to Pāhoa and the Puna SE rift zone. Massive eruptions in 2018 threatened Pāhoa and filled nearby Kapoho Bay with lava, dramatically altering the coastline and covering many hot springs and pools. We will see where lava threatened infrastructure and drive new roads over fresh lava fields to the Isaac Hale beach park. We will backtrack to Pāhoa for dinner at Kaleo’s, then return to Hilo. (B, D)

13, Monday
Laupahoehoe Point, Akaka Falls, Honomu, Kona

After breakfast, we depart for Kona via the northern route. Along the way, we stop to visit several places of interest: scenic Laupahoehoe Point and tsunamis, Akaka Falls, the small Portuguese plantation town Honomu (with bakery), Waipio Canyon, and Puukohola Heiau National Historic Site (largest restored temple in Hawaii). Lunch will be independent along the way. We then continue to our hotel in Kona, where dinner is independent. (B)
14, Tuesday
Kona
Bright and early, we visit a coffee plantation. The volcanic soil and mild tropical climate make for awesome Kona coffee, and we will see how it is grown and processed. Sampling of the varieties is encouraged. We will continue to Kealakekua Bay and view the site of the landing, reception, and eventual death of Captain James Cook, the European discoverer of Hawaii. After our visit, we have an included lunch at Manago and then make our way back to Kona, where the rest of the day is free. (B, L)

15, Wednesday
Kona, Kauai
After a leisurely morning, we will check out of our hotel and make stops to visit both St. Benedict's "Painted Church" and Puʻuhonua O Honaunau National Historical Park. Mid-afternoon, we continue to the airport for our flight to the island of Kauai. Upon arrival, we head to our hotel for check-in, where dinner is included this evening. (B, D)

16, Thursday
Waimea Canyon
Today we have several stops on the itinerary: we will visit the Russian Fort Elizabeth State Historical Park (built in 1817) and see the mysterious Menehune irrigation ditch. We'll also visit what is nicknamed “the Grand Canyon of the Pacific.” Waimea Canyon is a deeply eroded canyon into a basalt volcano. We visit several spectacular canyon overlooks and further discuss rock weathering, volcanic plumbing, geomorphology, and invasive species. We will visit Kōkeʻe State Park and Museum and look down on the rugged Nā Pali coast of northern Kauai from high roadside overlooks (clouds permitting). Lunch is included today at Kōkeʻe Lodge. This evening, we return to our hotel for an independent dinner. Reservations are made at the hotel should you wish to have your independent dinner here this evening. (B, L)

17, Friday
Wailua Falls, Hanalei
One of our first stops today is to see the beautiful Wailua Falls or Opaekaa Falls. From there we continue to the north shore of the island. After seeing taro farms, we visit the charming town of Hanalei of Puff the Magic Dragon fame. This is a perfect place to spend our last afternoon on Kauai. The movie South Pacific was filmed near here. We'll have a festive farewell dinner this evening at Duke’s. (B, D)

18, Saturday
Honolulu
After an early morning hotel check out, we head to the airport for our flight to Honolulu. Upon arrival, we head to Pearl Harbor for a tour of the Pearl Harbor Museum, exhibits, and harbor. Late afternoon, we return to the airport for our evening flight home. (B)

19, Sunday
Return Home
Arriving in Chicago from our overnight flight, we connect with our flight back to Grand Rapids. We are certain that your tour of amazing Hawaii has been richly rewarding — and lots of fun!
CONSENT TO TERMS AND CONDITIONS: Access to and use of the services of Witte Associates, Inc. also are subject to the terms and conditions of this document ("Terms and Conditions") for the use of the website at http://www.witteassociates.com, or by telephone at 800-279-7048 ("Witte" and/or "our"). By accessing, using or obtaining any content, products, or services through our offices or through our website, you, the purchaser and/or traveler and/or participant ("you") agree to these Terms and Conditions. You also agree to READ THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS BEFORE USING THIS WEBSITE OR USING OUR SERVICES. If you do not accept all of these terms, then please do not use our services or our website. These terms and conditions govern the relationship between Witte and you, and they will supersede any prior written or oral agreements between the parties. These also include warranty disclaimers and liability exclusions. By using this website, you acknowledge and agree (a) this is a fair balance because this website is accessible by you conveniently and at no charge; and (b) if you do not agree or do not accept these terms and conditions, you can easily choose not to use this website or Witte’s services. IF ANYTHING IS IN THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, INCLUDING WARRANTY DISCLAIMERS AND LIABILITY EXCLUSIONS, THAT YOU DISAGREE WITH OR ARE NOT WILLING TO BE BOUND BY, OR IF SOMETHING IS MISSING FROM THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS THAT YOU CONSIDER ESSENTIAL, THEN YOU MUST NOT USE THIS WEBSITE OR OUR SERVICES. No alterations to these terms and conditions may be made by any website user. If you do not agree to any part of these Terms and Conditions, you are not authorized to use the website and/or services.

General Data Protection Policy. We collect personal data, including, but not limited to legal name, gender, date of birth, passport information, dietary needs, and mobility concerns for the purpose of making travel arrangements on your behalf. Share this information with third parties to provide the operation of your trip/trips. By signing and registering a form/agreeing to the terms in TRIP, you agree to sharing your personal data for the purpose of making travel arrangements on your behalf.

The cost of your tour includes:

- Air transportation from from Grand Rapids to Kona, from Kona to Kaui, from Kaui to Honolulu, and from Honolulu to Grand Rapids with any regular scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier which may include the carrier's code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect data of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration’s (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. TSA’s privacy policies will also apply, and if you fail to provide it, you may be refused boarding and denied access to the airport’s commerical areas. Witte takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Frequent flyer points are not guaranteed in connection with group airfares. Some airlines may limit frequent group airfares credits to 25% of the frequent flyer points that apply to individuals while others do not offer any credits for group airfares.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in fines in years imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 1214). Hazardous materials include, but are not limited to, weapons, flammable substances, explosives, flammable liquids, and radioactive materials. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between hotels. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many cities, sightseeing is often done on foot or via public transportation.

Accommodations in moderate first-class to standard first-class hotels based on two people sharing a room with private facilities. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class hotels will be used. When hotels in these categories are not available, superior tourist-class hotels will be used.

Travel insurance. This travel protection can be purchased at any time prior to making the final payment for your tour. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. It may be necessary to enroll in travel protection at the time of your initial deposit. You may choose to include the terms of the travel policy offered through Travelers with your existing life, health, home and automobile insurance policies you may have. If you have questions about your coverage under your existing insurance policies, please contact your insurance agent or call the phone number provided on your policy.

Documentation: Effective May 3, 2023, all adults (18 and over) are required to show a valid U.S. federal photo ID (passport) or Real-ID compliant-state issued photo ID in order to be allowed to go through the checkpoint and onto their flight. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special documentation requirements. Please refer to the passport or visa register and meet any government issued ID requirements approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special documentation requirements approximately 45 days prior to departure. If they register again approximately 45 days prior to departure, Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after their final check.

When traveling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids. Examples: Dhs-designated enhanced driver’s license, Real-ID compliant driver’s license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and bookings record.

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized copy of the legal custody document by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a copy, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to enter a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: https://www.tsa.gov/travel/travel-cards-and-documents/minor-consent-form. Any child traveling with a notarized copy of the legal custody documents by both parents will be allowed to travel with only one parent who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. Important note: Parents are responsible to contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm all travel entry and exit requirements, which may include obtaining additional notarized documentation.

HEALTH DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. You are responsible to make absolutely certain to have the proper immunizations and required documentation of such immunizations before travel. Witte is not responsible for any changes in documentation liability for itinerary changes, or any changes in vaccine/vaccination requirements for travel prior to departure or upon landing at the final destination. See your health practitioner for advice. Prior to travel, required inoculations, if any, must be recorded by your health practitioner on a valid vaccination certificate, and you must carry for proof of inoculation where required. If you are concerned about taking any medications or receiving certain inoculations, and adequate timing of such inoculations relative to your travel, contact your health practitioner at least 30 days before departure. For more information, visit the U.S. State Department websites http://travel.state.gov for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, the United States Centers for Disease Control http://www.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list/ and the World Health Organization http://www.who.int/en/ relating to health issues.

Allowances. You may bring, if allowed, a maximum of 62 linear inches (height plus width plus depth) and weight of 50 lbs. You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of garment luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight limitations are per person, not per piece of luggage. If you are traveling by coach, there may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 19 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, mark-ups and/or changes in an existing or new arrangement, and/ or increase in price. Your tour price will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, you will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature on the registration form indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.

Reservations and payments. To make reservations on this tour, complete the Registration Form and return it as indicated. Reservations cannot be accepted over the telephone. Payments are due as follows:

- Deposit of $1,000 per person with Registration Form.
- Payment of $2,500 per person by October 1, 2023.

Balance due on receipt of final invoice sent approximately 45 days prior to departure

If you are registering for the tour after one of the above payment dates, increase your deposit amount accordingly so your account will be up to date. Please note that checks returned due to insufficient funds are subject to a $30 service fee.

Credit card payments. Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express credit cards are accepted for the deposit. The deposit charge is processed shortly after receipt of your registration form. The remaining balance due to Witte for the final payment is charged by the third party processing the cancellation in writing. Penalties are per person and will be based on the date of receipt, as follows:

- More than 180 days before departure $200
- Between 150 and 180 days before departure $500
- Between 90 and 149 days before departure $650
- Between 45 and 89 days before departure $1,960
- 30 to 44 days before departure $5,000

The service fee noted under “Special Flight Arrangements” and the nonrefundable portion of any special arrangements, or any other non-refundable arrangements made on behalf of the canceling participant, are also added to the above penalties.

Allow two to four weeks for processing your cancellations. Be sure to make arrangements to verify the above. In regard to reimbursements for payments made by check are refunded by check to the person or organization that made the payments, and payments charged to a credit card are credited back to the same credit card.

Membership/Passenger’s Responsibility. You acknowledge Witte is responsible for a comfortable and respectful atmosphere that protects the health of all travelers, creating a positive tour experience. This requires commitment from every individual on the tour to assume personal responsibility for protecting their own health and wellbeing, as well as the health and wellbeing of other travelers and tour personnel. You pledge to follow local and state laws as well as tour and sightseeing requirements related to COVID and/or any other community health concern. If you refuse to comply with these rules of conduit, you understand that Witte Travel & Tours reserves the right to remove you from the trip and you are responsible for any associated expenses. Witte reserves the right to accept or reject any person as a member of the tour and to expel from the tour any participant whose conduct or condition is incompatible with the interest of the group.

Force Majeure shall remain in its sole and absolute discretion, although Witte shall use its reasonable efforts to reimburse you where possible. However, Witte shall be entitled to deduct from any refund the reasonable actual and potential costs to Witte of the Force Majeure and applicable cancellation fees.

Regarding civil unrest, once Witte has investigated the prevailing situation, as it deems fit, it shall remain in Witte’s sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the trip. You may in such cases be subject to the trip costs to Witte and each supplier’s terms and conditions.

Assumption of Risk and Liability. In the event of cancellation, the service fee and any non-refundable portion of special air or land arrangements made for you will be added to the penalties noted under “Cancellations and Refunds.” Witte must receive requests for special flight arrangements at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special meal requests and food allergies. Note special meal requests and food allergies on your registration form. Witte cannot be responsible if special requests are not met but we will pass them on to the airlines, hotels and restaurants. If you have dietary restrictions or food allergies, be sure to carry your medications with you at all times. Also, discuss your special needs with your tour personnel and ask the wait staff about the foods you are served.

Motorbikes and Motorized Scooters. The tour includes motorized scooters and wheelchairs. It is unsuitable for many trips. Transportation services, including many transfers, do not offer ramp access for any vehicle other than standard bikes. Ramp accessibility is not always available. Witte tour personnel are not able to provide attendant services.

Consult your physician if you have any concerns about your ability to participate.

Time away from the tour. Advise Witte in writing at least 45 days before departure if you plan to spend some time away from your traveling companions. Participants who make their own flight arrangements should advise Witte of their plans in writing at least 45 days prior to departure. Otherwise, Witte shall not be deemed to be in breach of these terms and conditions or otherwise be liable to you, by reason of delay in performance, or by non-performance, of any of its obligations hereunder to the extent that any such delay or non-performance is due to any Force Majeure.

If Witte, and/or any of its travel suppliers, are affected by Force Majeure, they shall be entitled to, and may in their sole and absolute discretion, vary or cancel any flight or arrangement in relation to the trip. Payment of any refund by Witte to you as a result of the non-performance of any obligations due to Force Majeure shall remain in its sole and absolute discretion, although Witte shall use its reasonable efforts to reimburse you where possible. However, Witte shall be entitled to deduct from any refund the reasonable actual and potential costs to Witte of the Force Majeure and applicable cancellation fees.
