January 2024 Newsletter

Reflecting Faith Institutional Cohorts

This past fall, the de Vries Institute and the Kuyers Institute joined Calvin University's International Dieten and the Kuyers Center, both of which are committed to helping churches and school leaders integrate their faith with their study and practice of their discipline. We recognize the challenges of finding time and resources for ongoing professional development, and we are committed to finding ways to support and empower faculty and leaders to engage in meaningful theological conversations.

Cohort Registration

Interested in participating in a Reflecting Faith course? Check out our offerings for this spring. We offer a wide range of courses, from in-depth workshops to shorter, more focused sessions. Whether you're looking to deepen your understanding of a particular topic or simply want to explore new ideas, we have a course for you.

Faith and STEM Teaching Event

Join us on April 12th for a unique event that will bring together faculty from across the Calvin campus. This event will feature presentations from faculty members who have successfully integrated faith and science in their classrooms. You'll have the opportunity to hear from experts in the field and ask questions of the presenters. This event is open to all members of the Calvin community.

Integrated Education in a Reductionist Age - Call for Presentations

We are looking for presenters who are interested in sharing their experiences with integrated education in a reductionist age. If you have expertise in this area and would like to present at our upcoming event, please contact us.

Other Calvin University Centers & Institutes: Clean Water Institute

The Clean Water Institute is a cutting-edge research and education center dedicated to finding sustainable solutions to the water crisis. Through research, education, and community engagement, the Clean Water Institute aims to address the urgent need for clean, safe water.

Reading Recommendations

Here are some of the books we've enjoyed recently. If you're looking for new reading material, consider these titles.

De Vries Institute Staff Highlight: Isabelle Fang

Isabelle Fang is a recent addition to the de Vries Institute team. She brings a wealth of experience in teaching and education to her role as an education coordinator. Isabelle is responsible for coordinating and facilitating the Reflecting Faith course, which aims to help faculty integrate their faith with their teaching.

Stay Informed by Following Us on Social Media

Want to stay up to date on what's happening at the de Vries Institute? Follow us on social media to get updates and information between newsletters!