If your first language (or heart language) is Spanish or Korean, here are some alternatives to listening to scripture: For Korean, search for the free app "드라마 바이블." For Spanish (and many other languages), search for "Word Project" for iOS or Android.

Here are five questions or prompts to help you engage with scripture after you listen to it:

1. What's going on in the story or passage?
2. What excites, inspires, encourages me/us in the passage?
3. What challenges, jolts, confuses, even offends me/us in the passage?
4. What does this tell us about who God is (Father, Son, Holy Spirit)?
5. What will we do with what we've just heard and learned in the next seven days?

We want to thank the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship for purchasing subscriptions to the Dwell App for the Calvin community. One of the things that the Institute is committed to is helping the Calvin community deeply engage scripture because engaging with scripture helps us to worship. You can access your free, one-year subscription by going to dwellapp.io/calvin. Your first year is paid for, and from there you can upgrade to the lifetime subscription at a discounted rate. Try it out – listen to scripture as you get ready for class, on your way to class, or after class with your friends.
