25, THURSDAY

Depart

A private motorcoach transfer will take you from Grand Rapids to Chicago, where you’ll check in for your overnight flight. (D-in flight)

26, FRIDAY

Arrive Dublin

Welcome to Dublin, Ireland. After going through customs and passport control, you meet your tour manager and bus driver. Heading into the city, you take an early lunch. Dublin was once home to writers such as James Joyce, W.B. Yeats, Jonathan Swift, Bram Stoker and Oscar Wilde. Take a literary walking tour to see pubs, the college, and other places of interest. You will also visit the Dublin Writer’s Museum on this tour. Then head to your hotel. After a brief respite, gather for a Welcome Dinner. (B-on board, D)

---

27, SATURDAY

Dublin

After breakfast, head to Abbey Theatre for a backstage tour. See behind the scenes of the current production and learn the history and significance of the Abbey Theatre. Then you head to the Temple Bar area for an independent lunch and free time. Temple Bar is a must-see riverside neighborhood. Cobbled streets, crowded pubs, and live music make this area popular with locals and guests alike. You’ll also find one-of-a-kind boutiques and galleries to pass the time. The rest of the afternoon is free to explore the area. Possibly see a play tonight or, if not, perhaps a Sunday matinee. (B)

---

28, SUNDAY

Dublin

Bright and early, you go to the Trinity College Library, home of the Book of Kells. This illuminated manuscript contains the four Gospels of the New Testament. Created in 800 AD on calfskin vellum by three scribes and four artists, this is an impressive biblical work of art. After time for an independent lunch, you head to the Guinness Factory for a tour to see the story of how roasted barley became a worldwide sensation. (B, D)

---

29, MONDAY

London

Following breakfast, you head to the airport for the flight to London. Upon arrival, go through customs and passport control, and meet your tour manager and driver. Once in the city you’ll take a tour of London, walking through Trafalgar Square (including a stop for independent lunch) and finishing by visiting both Westminster Abbey and Westminster Cathedral. Known for its stunning medieval architecture, Westminster Abbey was the location of Queen Elizabeth’s coronation and the marriage ceremony of Prince William and Kate Middleton; it is also the burial place for royalty and uncommon commoners. Westminster Cathedral is known for being the mother church of the English Catholic Church. (B, D)

The afternoon is free to enjoy the city. Things to do include walking up to Arthur’s Seat, visiting Rosslyn Chapel, having afternoon tea, or taking a rest (it’s going to be a late evening). After dinner we attend the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo. Watch musicians and performers from across the globe as they perform in this prestigious venue. (B, D)

7. WEDNESDAY
Edinburgh
Enjoy a hearty breakfast before heading out to visit the Palace of Holyroodhouse. The visit here will include three sections: first, the State Apartments, a collection of rooms showcasing the history and decorating tastes of past monarchies; then visit Mary, Queen of Scots’ history chambers; and finish with the abbey ruins. The group then breaks for lunch, with the rest of the afternoon at leisure. Tonight you gather for your Farewell Dinner. (B, D)

8. THURSDAY
Return
After a wonderful tour of the British Isles, your travels have come to an end. After breakfast, transfer to the airport for the return flights. (B)
