HERITAGE TOUR OF GREECE

MAY 11 – 25, 2019

Hosted by Dr. Ken Bratt
Experience the natural beauty, generous hospitality, and fascinating history of Greece while exploring some of its most important and popular sites. Highlights include prehistoric ruins on Crete; the classical monuments of Athens, Delphi, and cities associated with Paul’s missionary journeys (Philippi, Thessaloniki, Berea, Corinth, and Ephesus); the spectacular Byzantine monasteries of Metéora; and an Aegean cruise that includes five islands (Mykonos, Patmos, Rhodes, Crete, and Santorini) – not to mention the major cities and vibrant culture of modern Greece! In addition to on-site tours led by a professional Greek guide, our host will provide a study guide and occasional talks about the history and significance of the places we visit.

Hosted by Dr. Ken Bratt

Ken Bratt is a retired professor of Classics at Calvin College and a specialist in Greek and Roman archaeology. Over the past 30 years, he has led 22 trips for students and adult groups to Greece, Turkey, and Italy.

May 2019

Saturday, May 11
DEPART THE U.S.

Today we set out to visit Greece, a country rich in natural beauty, monuments of ancient civilizations, people of generous hospitality, and great food. Gathering at Chicago’s O’Hare International Airport, we will depart on our transatlantic flight. (D-in flight)

Sunday, May 12
THESälONIKI

Arriving in Europe, we’ll go through EU customs and transfer to our continuing flight to Greece. If time permits during our layover, you may wish to acquire some euros at an ATM. After arriving in Thessaloniki, we’ll meet our tour manager and driver for a panoramic tour of this great city before we transfer to our hotel. Also called Salonica, Thessaloniki was founded in 315 BC and was already a large metropolis in Roman times, when St. Paul was here. Today it is the second-largest city and harbor in Greece, and capital of the province of Macedonia. After checking in at our hotel, we’ll have time for rest or a walk before our group welcome dinner. (B-in flight, D)

Monday, May 13
KAVALA (ancient NEapOLIS), PHILIPPI, AMPHIPOLIS, THESälONIKI

Today we will drive northeast along the route of the Egnatian Way, the Roman road built in the 2nd century BC across the Greek peninsula from the Adriatic to the Aegean Sea. Our first stop will be Kavala, a harbor town beautifully situated on the Aegean Sea. Once known as Neapolis, this is the port through which Paul passed with Silas on his way from Asia into Europe (Acts 16:11). We’ll take time for lunch and sightseeing here before driving a short distance inland to Philip, which was named for its founder, Philip II, the father of Alexander the Great. The city became a Roman colony in 42 BC after the battle in which Mark Antony and Octavian (later Augustus) defeated Julius Caesar’s assassins, Brutus and Cassius. Paul preached here for the first time in about AD 50, and he returned for several subsequent visits to this very supportive church (Acts 16:12-40, Philippians).

We’ll have a guided tour of the GREEK THEATER (4th century BC), a remnant of the original VIA EGNATIA, the ROMAN FORUM (1st century AD), early CHRISTIAN BASILICAS of the 4th-5th centuries, and the modern MUSEUM & BAPTISTRY of LYDIA. On our way back, we’ll make a short stop to see the LION OF AMPHIPOLIS, a huge marble monument reconstructed in 1937 using fragments dating from the 4th century BC. Back in Thessaloniki, our dinner will be independent tonight so that you can explore the city’s cuisine as you wish. Ken and our guide will be happy to make suggestions. (B)

Tuesday, May 14
THESALONIKI
This morning we’ll visit the most important monuments of Thessaloniki, including the ROMAN AGORA (1st century AD), the ARCH and PALACE of GALERIUS (4th century AD), and important BYZANTINE CHURCHES like St. Demetrius and St. George. Here, soon after leaving Philippi, Paul planted a Christian church (Acts 17:1-9) to which he soon wrote letters expressing concern for their endurance in the faith (1st & 2nd Thessalonians). Later, you’ll have the choice of visiting the ARCHEOLOGICAL MUSEUM (for ancient Greek & Roman works) or the MUSEUM OF BYZANTINE CULTURE (for early Christian & Byzantine artifacts). The remainder of the afternoon will be unscheduled until we meet at the hotel in the evening for Ken’s two-part lecture on “The Legacy of Alexander” and “The Early Christian Church in Macedonia.” Dinner is independent again this evening. (B)

Wednesday, May 15
VERGINA, VERIA, METÉORA, KALAMBAKA
After breakfast we’ll head southwest to the spectacular MUSEUM of VERGINA, built over the tombs of Macedonian kings and displaying the precious works of art found in them. One is probably the tomb of Alexander’s father Philip II (died 336 BC), and it preserves his armor and the royal family’s silver tableware. Then we’ll make a short stop in the city of VERIA (ancient Berea), where a modern monument celebrates Paul’s visit (Acts 17:10-14).

By afternoon we’ll arrive in METÉORA, an area famous for its unusual geology, where tall pillars of rock support active MONASTERIES “up in the air” (metéora). These buildings are architectural marvels from the 15th – 16th centuries, and the whole area is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. After touring a couple of these monasteries and taking some dramatic pictures, we’ll head to our hotel in nearby Kalambaka and enjoy dinner together. (B, D)

Thursday, May 16
DELPHI
We’ll begin our day driving south across the plains of Thessaly into the mountains of central Greece. High up on Mt. Parnassus overlooking the Gulf of Corinth lies the site of DELPHI, one of the most scenic spots in Greece. Here we’ll enjoy a guided tour of the SANCTUARY of APOLLO, where we’ll see the TEMPLE of APOLLO (4th century BC, site of the famous oracle), the THEATER, and the STADIUM where athletes honored Apollo with games much like the Olympics (which honored Zeus). In the MUSEUM we’ll see some masterpieces of Greek art and the “Gallio inscription,” which is important for dating Paul’s ministry in Greece. We’ll have dinner at the hotel tonight, and Ken will give a short talk about “Delphi & Socrates of Athens.” (B, D)

Friday, May 17
ATHENS
From Delphi we’ll travel southeast across the mountains into Athens, the capital and largest city of modern Greece. On arrival we’ll enjoy an orientation drive through the major squares, past the PARLIAMENT (former royal palace), the PRESIDENTIAL MANSION, and OLYMPIC STADIUM. In the afternoon we’ll have a guided tour of the new ACROPOLIS MUSEUM, which displays many of the treasures found on Athens’ most famous hill, visible through the museum’s glass walls. We’ll enjoy dinner together at the hotel, and Ken will talk about “Periclean Athens” to prepare for tomorrow’s highlights. (B, D)

Saturday, May 18
ATHENS
This morning we’ll examine the most famous monuments of Greece as we visit the Acropolis. On our way to the summit, we’ll make a stop at the AREOPAGUS (Mars Hill), where Paul gave his famous speech to the Athenian elders (Acts 17:16-34). From the top of this hill we can look down into the AGORA (marketplace), the political & economic center of the ancient city, where Socrates once strolled with his students and Paul debated with Stoics and Epicureans. Here were the offices of the world’s first great democracy: its archons (executives), council, and law courts. Then we’ll climb the Acropolis, home of the most important religious shrines of Athens, including the TEMPLE of ATHENA NIKE, the PARTHENON (Temple of Athena Parthenos), and ERECHTHEION (Temple of Athena Polias) with its lovely “porch of the maidens,” all from the 5th century BC. Our guide will describe the architectural genius of these buildings, their functions, and their legacy for the history of art and architecture. From the Acropolis we’ll also get an overview of the entire city, from the original Theater of Dionysos (5th century BC) and Odeion (music hall) of Herodes Atticus (2nd AD) on the south slope all the way to the harbor of Piraeus and the surrounding mountains. This afternoon there will be free time for personal exploration or rest, and dinner is independent tonight. Ken and our guide can make suggestions. (B)

CORINTH, ATHENS
We’ll have a chance to sleep in a little this morning before gathering for worship and reflection. Ken will offer some thoughts about “The Early Church in Achaia.” In the afternoon we’ll make an excursion to ancient CORINTH, the capital of Roman Achaia and its largest city, dominating land and sea routes across the isthmus that links central Greece with the Peloponnesus. Ancient Corinth is a very large site that is still being excavated by the American School of Classical Studies. Our tour will include the TEMPLE of APOLLO (6th century BC), the ROMAN FORUM with its ROSTRUM (1st century AD), and the modern MUSEUM, where we’ll see two examples of rare ancient Jewish art. Paul ministered in Corinth initially for a year and a half, appearing at one point before the Roman governor Gallo (Acts 18:1-18). Later he wrote letters to this church that address many of the challenges that early Christians faced (1st & 2nd Corinthians), and from here he wrote his longest letter to a church he still wanted to visit (Romans). If time permits, we’ll drive up ACROCORINTH to see its impressive fortress, held by Greeks, Byzantines, Franks, Venetians, Turks, and Germans at various times in history. From this vantage point, one can enjoy a panorama over the entire region. Finally, we’ll return to Athens for a free evening and independent dinner. (B)

Monday, May 20
CRUISE: PIRAEUS, MYKONOS
This morning we’ll transfer to the port of PIRAEUS to board our Celestyal Cruise ship for a relaxing tour of five Aegean islands and one morning on the west coast of Turkey. Our first stop will be the island of MYKONOS, about half-way across the Aegean in the middle of the Cycladic islands, and one morning on the west coast of Turkey. Our first stop will be the island of MYKONOS, about half-way across the Aegean in the middle of the Cycladic islands, where we’ll have the chance to wander through the streets of this popular tourist town and see its whitewashed homes and windmills. All meals during the cruise will be aboard the ship. We’ll gather somewhere on the ship for an evening lecture on “The Early Church in Asia (Minor)” as we cruise overnight from Europe to Asia. (B, L, D)

Tuesday, May 21
CRUISE: KUSADASI, EPHESUS, PATMOS
By morning we’ll arrive in KUSADASI on the Turkish coast. After passing through customs, we’ll drive the short distance to ancient EPHESUS, which has been called “a marble Pompeii” (though it’s much older). The site features the archaic TEMPLE of ARTEMIS (6th century BC), one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, and a huge THEATER where the silversmiths later caused a riot protesting Paul during his two-year ministry in Ephesus (Acts 19:1-20:1). This was the capital of the Roman province of Asia and its splendid monuments include a TRIPLE ARCH from the time of the emperor
Augustus, the brilliant LIBRARY of CELSUS (2nd century AD), and the commercial MARKET, where Paul probably practiced his trade as a tent-maker. Ephesus is also the site of the CHURCH of St. JOHN, built in the 6th century over the tomb of Jesus’ beloved disciple, who (according to tradition) settled here with Jesus’ mother Mary. After our morning tour of Ephesus and its MUSEUM, we’ll board our ship for an afternoon visit to the island of PATMOS, where John recorded the visions he saw during his exile from Ephesus (Revelation 1:9). We’ll visit the GROTTO of the APOCALYPSE, a cave where John is believed to have received his revelation, and the MONASTERY of ST. JOHN. Overnight we’ll cruise to Rhodes. (B, L, D)

Wednesday, May 22
Cruise: Rhodes
Our entire day on the beautiful island of RHODES is unscheduled, unless you choose to join one of the optional tours offered by Celestyal Cruises, for an additional fee. The island was famous in antiquity for one of the seven wonders of the world, the Colossus of Rhodes, a bronze statue of Helios that spanned the entrance to the harbor. Paul passed here on his last trip to Jerusalem (Acts 21:1), and the city of Rhodes is best known for its medieval CASTLE and CRUSADER WALLS of the Knights of St. John. They also built a massive HOSPITAL, which now serves as the Archeological Museum. By evening we’ll be back aboard our ship for an overnight cruise to Crete. At some point we’ll gather for a talk about “Minoans & Myceneans” in preparation for tomorrow’s highlights. (B, L, D)

Thursday, May 23
Cruise: Crete, Santorini
With only a short time to spend on the island of CRETE, we’ll visit its most important site: the prehistoric PALACE of MINOS at KNOSSOS. Here between 2,000-1500 BC the Minoan people developed a sophisticated culture that produced monumental architecture, vivid painting and sculpture, and a written script that is still undeciphered. In its last phase the palace was ruled by Greek-speaking invaders known as the Myceneans, who adapted Minoan techniques for their own purposes and generated much of what we call Greek mythology. In the New Testament period Crete was the location of an early Christian community served by Titus (see Paul’s letter to him), probably in the nearby Roman capital of Gortyn. As a prisoner Paul also sailed along the island’s south shore just before being caught in a storm on his way to Rome (Acts 27:7-14). In the afternoon we’ll sail north to SANTORINI (ancient Thera), a spectacular crescent-shaped island formed around 1,600 BC in one of history’s greatest volcanic eruptions. It’s a long climb from the harbor up the black volcanic cliff to the town of Fira on top, but there are donkeys to offer assistance if you wish. During the night we’ll cruise back to Piraeus. (B, L, D)

Friday, May 24
Athens
Arriving in Piraeus, we’ll disembark and return to our hotel. The rest of the day is unscheduled so that you can rest, shop, or see whatever you still want to visit in the capital of Greece. Ken will be happy to suggest additional attractions and give directions. This evening we’ll gather for a farewell dinner at a restaurant in the Plaka. (B, D)

Saturday, May 25
Return to the U.S.
It’s time to go home! In the early morning we’ll transfer to the Athens Venizelos Airport to check in for our flights. We hope you’ve had two wonderful weeks of learning and enjoyment as we explored some of the “glories of Greece” together. Have a good trip! Kalo taxidi!
