November 10 – 22, 2020

Hosted by Gerry Van Kooten
Get ready for warmer temperatures as you join Gerry Van Kooten, geologist and volcano expert, on CALL/CAA’s expedition to Hawaii. Made up of 132 volcanic islands, Hawaii is the world’s largest island chain. On this tour, you’ll visit three of the seven inhabited Hawaiian islands: Hawaii (also known as the Big Island), Kauai, and Oahu. This adventure combines volcanic and cultural exploration with not-to-miss Hawaiian sightseeing. You’ll spend multiple days in and around Hawaii’s Volcanoes National Park.

At Kilauea, we will experience the majesty of volcanoes and understand how volcanic landscapes are formed. We will walk on Hawaii’s youngest lava flow, then later see Hawaii’s oldest deeply weathered rocks on Kauai as we explore Waimea Canyon and the North Shore.

You will also see green and black sand beaches, ancient temples, a coffee plantation, and Hawaii’s charming smaller towns like Kona and Hilo. The itinerary also includes waterfalls, a wildlife refuge, and botanical gardens. If this isn’t enough, there will be free time to enjoy the sunshine, to relax on a beach, or go snorkeling. Finally, your trip ends with a visit to the Pearl Harbor WWII Memorial. Don’t miss this custom-designed Hawaiian adventure. Space is limited.

10, Tuesday
Depart, Arrive Kona
Meeting at the Grand Rapids airport, we check in for our flights to Kailua-Kona, the largest town on the Big Island of Hawaii. After arrival, we check in at our hotel and enjoy a group dinner. (D)

11, Wednesday
Kona, South Point, Hilo
After breakfast we head south of Kailua-Kona on the first leg of our circumnavigation of Hawaii. We will stop at a grocery store where you can buy snacks and lunch food as we will not be near restaurants on some days. We head to South Point—the southernmost point of the Big Island (and the United States), where we’ll see wind farms, impressive cliffs overlooking the Pacific, ancient fishing sites and green sand, plus get an introduction to how the Hawaiian Islands were formed. We will likely see green sea turtles at the classic black-sand beach at Punalu‘u. Continuing by bus over the summit of Kilauea volcano, we head to Hilo, our home base for the next five nights. We’ll enjoy a group dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

12, Thursday
Volcanoes National Park, Hilo
Today we head into Volcanoes National Park to get a close look at one of the world’s most active volcanoes—Kilauea. We’ll start at the Visitor Center, view the film and discuss the landscape of Hawaii using a large topographic model. We will view the summit caldera, which collapsed during massive flank eruptions in 2018, and we will walk the Crater Rim trail past fumaroles and sulfur deposits. After a picnic lunch, we will hike on trails through the Kilauea Iki crater and Thurston Lava Tube. Total hiking distance is 4 to 5 miles, all on well-maintained trails. Depending on volcanic activity, we will also visit Jagger Museum on the caldera rim and view the active Halemaumau crater. This evening we return to Hilo. (B, L)
13, Friday
Volcanoes National Park, Hilo

Another adventurous day in Volcanoes National Park. Today we drive the Chain of Craters road where we will see lava flows along the coastline; examine spectacular flow features where lava cascaded over steep cliffs (pali); and view lava flows covering the asphalt highway. We will see Holei Arch, lava tree molds, Huluhulu cone, and the spectacular Mauna Ulu crater. Today we will hike about five miles, mostly on trails except for one mile of overland travel to the seldom visited Maunu Ulu crater rim. Midday we’ll enjoy a picnic lunch in the park. This evening we return to Hilo, where the remainder of the day is at leisure. (B, L)

14, Saturday
Hilo

This morning we start with a visit to Lili‘uokalani Park and Gardens, the largest Japanese Gardens outside of Japan. We visit the imposing statue of King Kamehameha on the Hilo waterfront and discuss his ascent to ruler of the Big Island and eventual ruler of all the islands. We will also discuss the vulnerability of Hilo to destructive Pacific tsunamis and how tsunamis have altered the waterfront and the town. After visiting the Hilo Farmers’ Market, we will have time to explore Kamehameha Avenue with its wooden storefronts, art galleries, small museums and a very nice ukulele shop. We visit the Hawaii Tropical Botanical Garden in the afternoon, then return to Hilo. (B)

15, Sunday
Hilo, Kapoho, Hilo

The morning is open and you are invited to attend a worship service (11 a.m.) in the historic Haili Congregational Church in downtown Hilo. Haili was established in 1824 and grew dramatically under the early Congregational missionary Titus Coan, reaching over 10,000 members, and was possibly the largest church in the world at the time. After an independent lunch, we head to Pahoa and the Puna SE rift zone. Massive eruptions in 2018 threatened Pahoa and filled nearby Kapoho Bay with lava, dramatically altering the coastline and covering many hot springs and pools. We will see where lava threatened infrastructure and drive new roads over fresh lava fields to the Isaac Hale beach park. We will backtrack to Pahoa for dinner, then return to Hilo. (B, L)

16, Monday
Akaka Falls, Kona

After breakfast we depart for Kona via the northern route. Along the way we stop to visit several places of interest: scenic Laupahoehoe Point and tsunamis, Akaka Falls, the small Portuguese plantation town Honomu (with bakery), Waipio Canyon, Tex’s malasadas, and Puukohola Heiau National Historic Site (largest restored temple in Hawaii). Lunch will be served at a restaurant along the way. We then continue to our hotel in Kona, where dinner is independent. (B, L)
17. Tuesday
Kona
Bright and early we visit a coffee plantation. The volcanic soil and mild tropical climate make for awesome Kona coffee and we will see how it is grown and processed. Sampling the varieties is encouraged. We will continue to Kaleakakua Bay and view the site of the landing, reception, and eventual death of Captain James Cook, the European discoverer of Hawaii. After our visit we make our way back to Kona, where the rest of the day is free to shop and snoop. (B)

18. Wednesday
Kona, Kauai
This morning we head to the airport for our flight to the island of Kauai. Upon arrival we tour the southern coast of the island visiting blowholes and Russian Fort Elizabeth State Historical Park (built 1817) to learn the history of Russia’s presence on the islands. We’ll also see the mysterious Menehune irrigation ditch, supposedly built in one night by the Menehune or “little people” (perhaps Hawaii’s equivalent to leprechauns), and an unusual outcrop of “pillow” basalt. You may wish to walk the wobbly suspension bridge used by the locals to cross the Waimea River. Captain Cook has a statue in the nearby town of Waimea, marking the location of his first island landfall. We then head to the hotel for check-in. Lunch and dinner are included today. (B, L, D)

19. Thursday
Waimea Canyon
Today we visit what is nicknamed “the Grand Canyon of the Pacific.” Waimea Canyon is a deeply eroded canyon into a basalt volcano. We visit several spectacular canyon overlooks and further discuss rock weathering, volcanic plumbing, geomorphology and invasive species. We will visit Koke’e State Park and Museum and look down on the rugged Na Pali coast of northern Kauai from high roadside overlooks (clouds permitting). We return to our hotel for individual dinner. (B)

20. Friday
Wailua Falls, Kilauea Point, and Hanalei
Our first stop today is to see the beautiful Wailua Falls. From there we continue to the north shore of the island. At Kilauea Point Wildlife Refuge, we’ll see the historic lighthouse and bird sanctuary, including nesting grounds for Laysan albatross and the endangered Nene Hawaiian goose. After seeing taro farms, we visit the charming town of Hanalei of Puff the Magic Dragon fame. This is a perfect place to spend our last afternoon on Kauai. The movie South Pacific was filmed near here. We’ll have a festive farewell dinner this evening. (B, D)

21. Saturday
Honolulu
After breakfast we head to the airport for our flight to Honolulu. Upon arrival, we head to Pearl Harbor for a tour of the Pearl Harbor museum, exhibits, and harbor. Late afternoon, we head to the airport for our evening flight home. (B)

22. Sunday
Return Home
Arriving from our overnight flight, we transfer for our flight back to Grand Rapids. (B-in flight)

All current airlines taxi, seat, security and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

- Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration’s (TSA) Secure Flight Program. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many cities, sightseeing is often done on foot. For this reason, all travelers should be prepared to do some walking.

Accommodations in standard to moderate hotels or similar accommodations. A rollaway cot will be provided to guests with a maximum weight of 250 lbs. Any other special or dietary requirements will be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Accommodations in moderate to first-class hotels on a twin or a double occupancy basis. For all traveling companions to benefit from the pre-existing insurance coverage, the name, date of birth and gender that will appear on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and boarding passes.

Travel Insurance. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied coverage under the insurance provided and/or be charged the non-refundable portion of the travel insurance cost. The products being offered provide insurance coverage that only applies to participants while they are traveling for any reason, and the benefits depend upon the type of plan chosen. The service fee noted under “Special Flight Arrangements” and the nonrefundable portion of any other non-refundable arrangements made on behalf of the canceling participant, are also added to the above penalties.
