YOUR HOST
Gary Nederveld
Gary Nederveld knows well the spectacular destinations to be visited. He has lived in and now regularly visits the Southwest states, spending much of the winter in southern Arizona where he volunteers as docent at Tumacacori National Historical Park. Decades ago Gary and his wife Pat were dorm parents at Rehoboth where Gary was also Elementary School Principal. Later, Gary was International Program Director at CRWRC, now World Renew, and in that capacity has visited many communities of the Americas, north and south of the border.

4, FRIDAY
Depart GR, Arrive Albuquerque
Meet at the airport for your flight to Albuquerque. Upon arrival, retrieve your bags and meet your tour manager and motorcoach. From there you head to your hotel for check-in and a welcome dinner. (D)

5, SATURDAY
Albuquerque, Santa Fe
After an early breakfast, you head to the Albuquerque Balloon Fiesta. Watch the opening ceremony and the mass ascension as hundreds of colorful balloons rise over the city. Spend the morning walking the fairgrounds. The Main Street has one-of-a-kind souvenirs, concession stands, wandering performers and other entertainers. You’ll also find a curated artisan market and the chainsaw carving competition. After an independent lunch, you make the drive north to Santa Fe. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure. Consider visiting the Georgia O’Keefe Museum. There is another group dinner tonight. (B, D)

6, SUNDAY
Santa Fe
This morning will start at breakfast with a discussion of the history of missions in New Mexico. Then you attend Mass at the Cathedral Basilica de Francis of Assisi. Built on the site of two previous churches, this spot has been a place of worship since 1626. After time for an independent lunch, you visit the New Mexico History Museum. The rest of the day is at leisure. (B)

7, MONDAY
Taos Pueblo, Taos, Santa Fe
After breakfast you visit one of the oldest continuously inhabited communities in the United States: Taos Pueblo. Catholicism is practiced among the Pueblo Indians, along with the ancient Indian religious rites. The Pueblo religion is very complex; however, there is no conflict with the Catholic church, as evidenced by the prominent presence of both church and kiva in the village. While here, you will have a guided tour. From there you head to the modern city of Taos for a visit to the Kit Carson House and Museum. See where Carson lived as you explore his involvement in the westward expansion of the United States. Heading back to Santa Fe, you visit the market at the Palace of the Governors. (B)

8, TUESDAY
Chaco Canyon, Farmington
This morning you head to Chaco Cultural National Historical Park. The ancient buildings here showcase architectural engineering not seen elsewhere in the American Southwest. The discussion over dinner with them tonight is on their experience of native peoples with white settlement, colonization and evangelism efforts. (B, D)

9, WEDNESDAY
Chinle/Canyon de Chelly, Gallup
Chinle, Arizona is the gateway to Canyon de Chelly National Monument. Navajo communities have lived for centuries in and around Canyon de Chelly. After an independent lunch in Chinle, the highlight of the day will be a tour of Canyon de Chelly in six-wheel-drive touring vehicles. Experienced Navajo guides will explain the significance of manmade structures and symbols while showing natural points of interest. Frequent stops will be made for photographs, to visit ruins and Navajo farms, and to see rock art. From there, you head to Gallup, NM. On the way you’ll stop at Hubbell Trading Post and see Window Rock, capital of the Navajo Nation. Once in Gallup, you check into the hotel. The rest of the evening is at leisure. (B)

10, THURSDAY
Rehoboth
Today we learn about the CRC mission/program at Rehoboth. Take a tour of the Christian School Campus and the Navajo Code Talker Museum. A special evening will be planned at the Rehoboth campus. It is possible that dinner will be included at the school with other Calvin alumni and friends. (B, D)
11, FRIDAY
Zuni, St. Johns, Tucson

After breakfast, head south to spend time with Zuni Mission staff. The old Zuni Mission is an early example of Spanish Colonial architecture. You’ll see the beauty of this church from the outside, as it’s too deteriorated to go inside. From there you start the drive to Tucson. An independent lunch stop will be made in St. Johns. Continuing your drive, you pass through Salt River Canyon. Once in Tucson, check in and enjoy a group dinner. (B, D)

12, SATURDAY
Tucson Area

This morning you spend your time in Sabino Canyon. Explore the beauty of the Sonoran Desert in the foothills of the Santa Catalina Mountains. You’ll have access to the tram (provided it is running) to further explore Sabino and Bear Canyons. From there you head to the Presidio San Agustín Fort. An independent lunch stop will be made along the way. The Presidio San Agustín Fort and Museum is a re-creation of the Tucson Presidio built in 1775. Midafternoon, the fort will come alive, as a living history reenactment shows what daily life was like in an era without running water. The rest of the day is at leisure. (B)

13, SUNDAY
Tohono O’odham Reservation, Nogales, Tubac, Tucson

This morning start with Mass at Mission San Xavier del Bac. This beautiful church on the Tohono O’odham reservation is a National Historic Landmark. The San Xavier mission was founded as a Catholic mission in 1692 by Father Kino. Construction on the church started in 1783 and took 14 years to complete. From there you go to Tumacácori, a National Historical Park. It was at this site that three Indian tribes met and conversed, sometimes in cooperation and sometimes in conflict, with Jesuit and Franciscan missionaries, settlers and soldiers. Next, head to Nogales for an independent lunch. After lunch you will see the border wall. On the way back to Tucson, you stop in Tubac, a thriving artist colony. Back at the hotel there is an evening lecture. (B)
14, MONDAY
Yuma, San Diego
We’ll get an early start after breakfast today. The drive to San Diego will take most of the day. Along the way you’ll stop in Yuma to visit the Territorial Prison. The prison opened in 1876 and closed in 1909 due to over-population. There will be time for an independent lunch in Yuma before continuing into California. Check in at the hotel upon arrival. The rest of the day is at leisure. (B)

15, TUESDAY
Mission Basilica San Diego de Alcalá
