August 2021
07, Saturday
Depart
Our departure day is here! We’ll take a bus from Grand Rapids to Chicago where we check in for our international flights.

08, Sunday
Venice, Mestre
Welcome to Italy! After going through customs and passport control, we’ll meet our tour manager and head to our hotel. There will be time to rest and relax before our welcome dinner. (D)

09, Monday
Venice, Mestre
Now that we’ve had a good night’s sleep, we’re ready to explore the famous city of Venice with our local guide, beginning with a boat tour through the Grand Canal and waterways among the many islands in the lagoon. After an overview of the city, we’ll visit St. Mark’s Basilica (consecrated in 1117), a beautiful example of Italian Byzantine architecture that features walls and domes covered with 86,000 square feet of golden mosaics! The afternoon is free for independent roaming, shopping, or relaxing. You may want to visit the famous Rialto Bridge, take a gondola ride, or explore the canals by vaporetto (boat-bus). After an independent dinner in your choice of restaurants, we’ll meet at a set time and place to return to our hotel. Ken will end the day with a short talk about “The Venetian Empire,” which extended to coastal Croatia and far into the Mediterranean Sea. (B)

10, Tuesday
Aquileia, Trieste, Ljubljana
Our destination today is the country of Slovenia. On the way, we’ll stop at two of Italy’s easternmost cities: Aquileia and Trieste. In Aquileia, we’ll see the early Christian mosaics in the Basilica of Santa Maria Assunta. Vastly different than the opulent mosaics we saw yesterday, the polychromatic mosaics here showcase the simple iconography of the 4th century. We’ll also visit the other ruins of Aquileia, which was once a wealthy city in the Roman Empire. Then we’ll travel to Trieste, another city with a multifaceted history. It was transferred from Austrian to Italian control in 1918, after World War I. We’ll stop to see the port, old town, and Roman theater. Then we’ll cross into Slovenia, driving with the Julian Alps to our north until we reach the capital city, Ljubljana. After hotel check-in, we’ll enjoy a group dinner. (B, D)

11, Wednesday
Ljubljana
We’ll start the day with a walking tour of Slovenia’s capital. Highlights include the Dragon Bridge, the Triple Bridge, numerous historic squares, and the colorful market. We’ll also visit the Castle high above the town and the Baroque Cathedral of St. Nicholas. The rest of the day is unscheduled to allow for personal exploration and rest. After an independent dinner in your choice of restaurants, we’ll end the day back at the hotel with a short talk about “The Roman Empire.” (B)

Tour Pace
MODERATE – Activity levels vary from day to day. Sightseeing is often a brisk walk over distances of several miles on cobblestone streets and uneven ground.
12, Thursday
Kumrovec, Zagreb

After breakfast we’ll start our journey to Croatia. Stopping in Kumrovec, a village on the border of Slovenia and Croatia, we’ll visit the Ethnological Museum of the Old Village. This museum houses the birthplace of Marshal Josip Broz Tito, once President of Yugoslavia. This open-air museum will give everyone a sense of regional life at the turn of the 19th to 20th century. Then we’ll continue to Zagreb, the capital of Croatia. A local guide will lead us through the upper town to see the Parliament and Viceroy’s Palace, along with St. Mark’s and St. Mary’s Cathedrals. Dinner will be at the hotel this evening, after which Ken will offer a short “Introduction to Balkan History.” (B, D)

13, Friday
Rijeka, Pula, Opatija

We’ll head back to the Adriatic coast today, into the heart-shaped Istrian peninsula. Our first stop is in the town of Rijeka, Croatia’s largest port, which is famous for many examples of Austro-Hungarian architecture. Then we’ll continue to the port of Pula. This city features many reminders of its Roman past, including well preserved walls, a theater, the Gate of Hercules, a Temple of Augustus, a triumphal arch, and a massive amphitheater dating to the 1st century. We’ll end the day in the seaside town of Opatija, where we’ll check into our hotel and have dinner. (B, D)
14, Saturday
Opatija, Embark, Rab
Our morning starts with a tour of the Hapsburg-era villas. Opatija, part of the Croatian Riviera, was a seaside destination for the wealthy during the Austro-Hungarian Empire of the 19th century. The city is filled with beautiful villas and a 7.5-mile coastal promenade. After the tour, we’ll embark on the MV Martimo, our home for the next seven nights. Early in the afternoon we’ll enjoy lunch as we set sail for the “island of love,” Rab. Upon our arrival in the town with the same name, we’ll take a guided walking tour of the old town, exploring its medieval walls, the famous four bell towers, palaces, churches, and squares. Legend has it that in 1177, the local nuns created a special Rab cake for visiting Pope Alexander III. The recipe remains a secret, but we’ll get a chance to taste this special cake. The rest of the day is free, and dinner is independent tonight. You may return to the ship whenever you wish. (B, L)

15, Sunday
Rab, Zadar
After breakfast we’ll sail to Zadar, back on the mainland. At some point Ken will talk about “Early Christianity in the Balkans,” and we’ll have time for informal worship (optional). Lunch will be on board before our guided walking tour of Zadar. Here, centuries of history are built upon each other: you’ll see how 1st-3rd century Roman ruins sit next to a circular 9th century basilica. This church of St. Donatus was built on the pavement of the Roman forum and still preserves two intact Roman columns. It survived a 13th century Mongol attack. Nearby we’ll see a modern sea organ that celebrates the coastal waters. The remainder of the day is at leisure and dinner is independent tonight. (B, L)
16, Monday
Zadar, Skradin, Krka
Waterfalls National Park, Šibenik

Today we get to marvel at another natural spectacle. We’ll cruise to Skradin, board a coach, and head to the famous Bibich winery for wine tasting and a light tapas lunch. Then we’ll drive to Krka Waterfalls National Park to visit “Skradinski Buk,” where the river Krka rushes over 17 waterfalls. After our visit, we’ll continue to Šibenik, having free time to enjoy the glorious old town. Of notable importance is the 15th century Cathedral of St. James, a UNESCO World Heritage site, now restored after being shelled in 1991. You’ll enjoy wandering around the old town and waterfront, and doing some boutique shopping. Dinner is on board this evening. (B, L, D)

17, Tuesday
Šibenik, Split

We’ll spend the morning sailing southeast along the coast to Split, the capital of the Dalmatian region and second largest city in Croatia. Its most famous monument is the Palace of Diocletian, who ruled the Roman Empire from 284-305 and built this palace in the form of a military camp as his retirement home and mausoleum. Its Golden Gate and walls are well preserved, and its Temple of Jupiter was transformed into a Christian church in the 6th century. A local guide will take us through the massive complex, the historic Old Town, and the market. The rest of the day is unscheduled and dinner is independent tonight. (B, L)

18, Wednesday
Split, Hvar

Our destination today is the island of Hvar. We’ll enjoy a morning of cruising, a swim stop near the Paklinski islands, and lunch on the ship. In the town of Hvar we’ll have a guided walking tour of its many cultural and historical sites: a Renaissance cathedral, the oldest communal theater in Europe (founded in 1612), a Franciscan monastery, the Benedictine Convent famous for Croatian lace (on the UNESCO World Heritage list), and the Spanjola Fortress towering high above the town. The rest of the day is free for exploring, shopping (the island is known across the world for its lavender), and an independent dinner in one of Hvar’s excellent restaurants. (B, L)

19, Thursday
Hvar, Korčula

During breakfast we’ll depart for the island and town of Korčula, the birthplace of Marco Polo (1254-1324). Surrounded by medieval walls, Korčula is a town full of legends. Today, it is the only place in the world where the Spanish medieval knight’s game, Moreška, is still performed. Upon arrival, we’ll enjoy a guided walking tour through the streets of the old town, which is built in the shape of a fish bone. At some point Ken will talk about “Catholics, Muslims, and Orthodox in the Balkans.” The rest of the day is at leisure and dinner is independent tonight. (B, L)
20, Friday
Korčula, Mljet, Dubrovnik
After breakfast, we’ll cruise to the island of Mljet, which is mostly covered by the dense forest that once typified the Mediterranean coast. Admiring this lovely scenery and enjoying lunch on board, we’ll stop at the northern end of the island, where Mljet National Park is located. We’ll spend the afternoon ashore with our tour manager walking around the two saltwater lakes. In the middle of the larger one you can visit the Franciscan monastery and church. Then we’ll continue to Dubrovnik. Tonight is the Captain’s dinner with live entertainment! (B, L, D)

21, Saturday
Disembark, Dubrovnik
Today we have to say goodbye to the ship and crew. After disembarkation, we’ll head into Dubrovnik for a guided walking tour of the Old Town, famous for its old walls, red roofs, and spectacular location. Once ruled by the Byzantines, and then by Venice, Dubrovnik won its independence in 1382. The city was devastated by an earthquake in 1667, and from 1991-2 it was the target of heavy bombing by Yugoslavian troops; but the damage has all been repaired. The highlights of our tour include a visit to the Franciscan Monastery and a cable car ride from the Old Town to the Srd Mountain to enjoy scenic views of this spectacular city. The rest of the day is at leisure for final shopping and exploration. A farewell dinner is planned for this evening. (B, D)

22, Sunday
Return
After breakfast we’ll head to the airport for the start of our return trip. Upon arrival in Chicago, we’ll transfer back to Grand Rapids. (B)
