Italy
Florence Through the Eyes of Dante

May 14 — 27, 2021

Led by:
Dr. Jennifer Holberg
Experience an in-depth exploration of Florence, home of the Renaissance and birthplace of one of the greatest writers of all time: Dante Alighieri. Part retreat, part tour, we’ll spend our time visiting the many historic sites, museums, and churches Florence has to offer, while allowing ample time for reflection and relaxation. We’ll see the wonders of Michelangelo, Leonardo, Fra Angelico, Botticelli, and many more, and the trip will use Dante’s Divine Comedy as a lens to understand the city and its rich heritage. All are invited to read excerpts from Dante’s masterpiece before or during the trip. Our Italian experiences also include time in the glorious cities of Siena, Lucca, Pisa, and Perugia and we’ll end our time in Rome—the Eternal City—with stops at the major Roman sites and at the Vatican.

Our home base for the majority of our time will be Sanctuary Firenze in Florence (www.sanctuarybbfirenze.com), the convent guest house of the Suore Oblate located in the heart of the city. Rooms are simple and clean, with serene areas and a beautiful courtyard garden. All beds in the guest house are single beds and a light continental breakfast is served each morning. Most mornings in Florence will include an orientation session with Dr. Holberg to prepare us for the day. In Rome, we will stay at Hotel Lancelot (www.lancelothotel.com), located near the Colosseum.

Don’t miss this unique opportunity!

Dr. Jennifer Holberg is professor of English and co-director of the Calvin Center for Faith & Writing. She is a popular CALL teacher, and she has led Calvin student interim classes to study Dante in Florence.

MAY 2021

FRIDAY, MAY 14

Departure from the U.S.

The day of departure has arrived! We’ll meet at the Gerald R. Ford International Airport to check in for our flights (with other departure cities available upon request). Our adventure is beginning! (D-in flight)

SATURDAY, MAY 15

Arrive Florence

After changing planes in Europe, we’ll arrive in Florence. Welcome to Italy! We’ll meet our waiting motorcoach and transfer to Sanctuary Firenze to get settled in and freshen up. This tranquil convent guest house will be our “home” for the next nine days. We may take a brief walking tour to get acquainted with the area before enjoying a welcome dinner. (B-in flight, D)

SUNDAY, MAY 16

Florence

We’ll have the first of our one-hour orientation sessions with Dr. Holberg this morning to prepare us for what we’ll be seeing today. Then we’ll walk to the Duomo Complex to visit the Duomo Museum and Santa Maria del Fiore, one of the largest churches in the world that contains Brunelleschi’s magnificent dome and Giotto’s bell tower. We’ll also see the Baptistery with its famous bronze doors by Ghiberti. The rest of the afternoon and evening will be at leisure. (B)

MONDAY, MAY 17

Florence

Following our morning session, we’ll walk to Museo di Nazionale di San Marco and its well-preserved 15th-century convent. After this visit, we’ll take a break for an independent lunch, with the option of eating at Mercato Centrale or choosing from one of the many restaurants in the area. We’ll reconvene to visit the Church of Santa Maria Novella. Founded in the 13th century by the Dominicans, it is known for its famous Brunelleschi crucifix in the Gondi Chapel and numerous frescos. There is also a famous perfumery here, which has been continually operated for more than 400 years. The rest of the afternoon and evening will be on our own to explore Florence. (B)
TUESDAY, MAY 18
Florence
Dr. Holberg will prepare us for today’s visit to the Uffizi Gallery. This is one of the world’s greatest collections of art with works by Giotto, Cimabue, Botticelli, Raphael, Michelangelo, and da Vinci, among others. In the afternoon, we’ll enjoy a winetasting with snacks of local specialties and have some free time to explore. The evening will be free for an independent dinner. (B)

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19
Florence
Following a morning session with Dr. Holberg, we’ll see the impressive collection of sculpture and decorative arts at the Bargello Museum. Then we’ll visit Palazzo Davanzanti, a palace built by the Davanzati family in the mid-14th century. It is now a museum that reconstructs the setting of an old Florentine home and contains furniture, household tools, ceramics, and lacework from the 14th to the 19th centuries. Our last visit for today is Santa Croce, the church of the Franciscans that is located on one of Florence’s oldest squares. Relax over an included dinner this evening. (B, D)

THURSDAY, MAY 20
Florence
Dr. Holberg will get us ready for our Medici Day, which includes visits to the Laurentian Library, the Medici Chapels, and the Palazzo Vecchio Museum and Tower. The wealthy Medici Family ruled Florence during the Renaissance and greatly influenced the fine arts. After free time for dinner, we’ll have the option of attending Vespers at San Miniato Abbey. (B)

FRIDAY, MAY 21
Florence
Following our morning session with Dr. Holberg, we’ll visit the Accademia Gallery, another premiere collection of art. Among the treasures we’ll explore will be several works by Michelangelo, most notably his famous David. The afternoon and evening will be free for individual pursuits. (B)
SATURDAY, MAY 22
Siena, Florence
We’ll head into the Tuscan countryside today and visit the lovely city of Siena, a medieval art and pilgrimage center built on three converging red clay hills. During a guided walking tour, we’ll see the Piazza del Campo with its Gothic palace and the Duomo with its richly decorated façade. Upon return to Florence, we’ll enjoy dinner at a restaurant. (B, D)

SUNDAY, MAY 23
Lucca, Pisa, Florence
An excursion to the charming cities of Lucca and Pisa await us today. We’ll have time to explore Lucca with its well-preserved, tree-lined ramparts that encircle the historic center. Then we’ll learn to prepare and enjoy eating a three-course lunch with wine during a cooking class at a farmhouse near Lucca. A local guide will take us on a walking tour of Pisa, and we’ll return to Florence for an evening at leisure. (B, L)

MONDAY, MAY 24
Perugia, Rome
We’ll bid farewell to Florence as we travel southeast to Perugia, located in a beautiful setting on a hill above the Tiber River Valley. This is the capital of the Umbria region and a sister city to Grand Rapids. We’ll have a chance to soak up the atmosphere here and have lunch at a restaurant before heading to the “Eternal City” of Rome. As time and traffic conditions allow, we’ll take a panoramic tour of Rome before checking in at our hotel for a three-night stay. Relax over dinner at the hotel this evening. (B, L, D)
TUESDAY, MAY 25
Vatican City, Rome
We’ll visit Vatican City today, the small but powerful independent state that is the heart of Roman Catholicism. A local guide will take us on a guided tour of the opulent Vatican Museums, filled with almost incomprehensible treasures, the highlight of which will be the Sistine Chapel. This splendid vault, painted by Michelangelo, illustrates the Creation, the Flood, and the Last Judgement. We’ll also tour the massive St. Peter’s Basilica with Michelangelo’s Pieta. The evening is free for an independent dinner. (B)

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26
Rome
We’ll return to St. Peter’s Square to attend a Papal Audience, provided the Pope is in residence. Then we’ll visit the Colosseum, which is the largest amphitheater in the ancient world, and the Roman Forum. This was the center of Roman political, religious, and commercial life. We’ll also visit the interesting Capitoline Museum. To cap off our Italy experience, we’ll enjoy a farewell dinner at a restaurant. (B, D)

THURSDAY, MAY 27
Return to the U.S.
After breakfast, we’ll transfer to Rome’s Fiumicino Airport to check in for our flights home. (B, L-in flight)

Mild
The itinerary is scheduled to provide an in-depth, unhurried look at various sites as well as ample free time for exploring. However, please note substantial walking will be required to reach many sites, along with walking through churches, museums, and galleries. Participants can expect some of the walking to be on cobblestone streets, uneven ground, hills, and stairways. Please contact Dr. Holberg if you have questions about the activity level and walking involved.

You can do so by calling 1-800-947-8669, or by going to travelexusa.com. Your travel protection plan is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the policy. Changes made by Travelex may cause a change to the premium you paid. These changes may affect both the price and the coverage provided. Changes made by Witte to your travel protection plan are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the policy. Changes made by Travelex may cause a change to the premium you paid. You may have insurance coverage from other sources that provide similar benefits but may be subject to different terms and conditions. You should review the terms of your existing insurance coverage. The travel document offered through TravelAssist with any existing life, health, home and automobile insurance policies you may have. If you have questions about your coverage under your existing insurance policies, you should contact your insurance company.

Travel Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport book to travel internationally. If you already have a passport book, check its expiration date now since the country visited on this tour requires passports to be valid for at least six months from the date of travel. If you need a new passport, you must apply and turn in the old passport. You should allow two to four weeks for the processing of new passport applications. You may need to obtain a new one, if you do not have a passport book or need a new one, apply as soon as possible. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens are required to obtain a visa or travel consent for minors for their travel to non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver’s license, U.S. Passport, a foreign passport, state-issued identification. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records.

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to enter a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form and instructions on how to obtain a notarized consent form, visit the sample-minor-consent-form.html The same requirements apply to minors traveling internationally without both parents.

When travelling internationally, it is advisable to bring a current copy of your travel insurance plan. This copy should include the insurance policy number, the name of your insurance company, the address and phone number of the insurance company. You must have your valid insurance policy number with you at the airport.

Air transportation from Grand Rapids to Florence and from Rome returning to Grand Rapids with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/oneway fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier’s code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airline taxes, fees and surcharges are included. Note: that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may be made by any Witte employee, representative or agent, unless in writing by an authorized officer of Witte.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration’s (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. TSA’s privacy policy for the Secure Flight Program is available at https://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/secure-flight-program. You may be asked to provide your Social Security number to enable TSA to complete the required background check. TSA may take reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Preventive medications. Participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or changes in group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participation will not be advised at the time of booking but will be included in the final travel agreement.

Recall 911 International Assistance and Concierge Services. To make reservations on this tour, complete the Registration Form and return it as indicated. If you do not register in accordance with the date indicated, it is at the seller’s discretion to refund the deposit paid by the participant. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan for your convenience. Witte offers a travel protection plan designed by TravelAssist Insurance Services. This travel protection plan can only be purchased within 15 days of initial deposit, pre-existing medical conditions are waived when full trip cost is insured if purchased and travel medical plan able to time of plan purchase. The plan is available to persons of any age and can be purchased at any time. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges. This plan covers medical, dental, and hospital expenses incurred while travelling, trip interruption, trip cancellation, accidental death, and more. The policy is a comprehensive travel protection plan that provides comprehensive medical and dental coverage for participants during the trip. The plan costs $295. for any inconveniences to land-only participants resulting from changes in the group’s flight schedule. Participants who change their status to land-only less than 90 days prior to departure may be subject to penalties established by the airlines.

Domestic flight connections. Note on your registration form if you would like to fly to and from the international departure city. You will be contacted with schedule options and costs. Witte must receive requests for connecting flights at least 45 days prior to departure. Special flight connections may require you to extend your stay and/or depart from and/or return to another city. The number of passengers who can deviate from the group’s flight schedule is restricted. You will be contacted to let you know if the arrangements you requested are possible. It is possible that, as a consequence of the penalties associated with special arrangements, a nonrefundable service fee of $75 per person will be added to your account along with any additional air or land costs that may apply. In the event of cancellation, the service fees are nonrefundable.
