In the Light of Jesus

PILGRIMAGE TO THE HOLY LAND

October 18 – 30, 2021

Led by:
Pastor Bill and Lyn Vanden Bosch
In the Light of Jesus is planned as a “disciple’s pilgrimage” following in the footsteps of Jesus to not only understand the Gospels and the early church in their historical, geographical, and cultural context, but to also increase our commitment to wholeheartedly respond to His invitation to “Follow Me.” It will focus on visiting New Testament sites in Galilee, along the Jordan Valley, and Jerusalem.

Bill and Lyn have been married for 51 years, and they are retirees after serving more than 38 years in congregational ministry—30 of those years at Oakdale Park Christian Reformed Church. They have been blessed with five children, three of whom are married, and with eight grandchildren.

They have studied twice in Israel at Jerusalem University College and twice under the leadership of Ray VanderLaan, Director of “In the Dust of the Rabbi” ministries and the teacher of the “That the World May Know” video series. In addition, they have been group leaders 16 times in the Holy Land. They have journeyed to the lands of the Bible (Israel, Turkey, and Greece) more than 25 times.

Bill has a Doctor of Ministry Degree in multicultural ministry from Fuller Theological Seminary. He has done extensive study in spiritual disciplines, most recently participating in a two-year exploration of the disciplines with the Transforming Center under the direction of Ruth Haley Barton, author of Invitation to Solitude and Silence. Lyn has a BA degree in teaching from Calvin College, has led children’s and single parents’ ministries at Oakdale Park Church, and has a wonderful spiritual gift of hospitality.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20

Caesarea Maritima, Megiddo, Nazareth

We will get an early start this morning, traveling to Caesarea, a majestic port built by King Herod and the harbor from which Paul sailed on his first missionary journey. There we will get our first view of the Mediterranean Sea, which became a “water highway” for the early spread of the Good News to the Roman Empire. We’ll then continue to Megiddo, the site referred to in Revelation as Armageddon. Following our visit to Megiddo, we will cross the Jezreel Valley to Nazareth, where Jesus grew up. We will explore this old city, including the Church of the Annunciation and a visit to the remains of a first-century home at the Sisters of Nazareth convent. Our evening meal will be at Restaurant Bayat, near what is traditionally called “Mary’s Well.” (B, D)

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21

Sepphoris, Mount Arbel, Magdala, Sea of Galilee

Today we will begin our exploration of the sites of Jesus’ ministry in Galilee. Our first stop will be the nearby town of Sepphoris, where Jesus may have worked with his father. We will then visit Mount Arbel, where we will have a spectacular view of the area where Jesus did over 60% of his ministry. Following this, we will stop at the first-century synagogue at Magdala, the traditional hometown of Mary Magdalene. We will then have a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee and view the “Ancient Boat” at Nof Ginosar before settling in at our hotel for a three-night stay. (B, D)

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22
Gamla, Susita (Hippos), Bethsaida, Jordan River, Capernaum, Sea of Galilee

We will start the day by going to Gamla, the center of the Zealot movement. We will follow that with a stop at Susita, an archeological site in the Decapolis near the place where Jesus healed a demon-possessed man. From there we will go to Bethsaida, the home of at least four of Jesus’ disciples, followed by a visit to Capernaum, Jesus’ “home town” and his mission headquarters. (B, D)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23
Korazin, Dan, Caesarea Philippi, Mensa Christi, Sea of Galilee

We plan to begin our day by visiting Korazin and then Dan, an Old Testament site that became the center of Jeroboam’s Baal cult. Following this, we will travel to Caesarea Philippi (Banias), where Jesus asked his disciples, “Who do you say I am?” From there we will go to Mensa Christi (“The Table of Christ”), which commemorates Christ’s restoration of Peter following the Resurrection. (B, D)

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24
Mount of Beatitudes, Bet Shean, Jericho

We begin our Sunday following in the footsteps of Jesus by going to the Mount of Beatitudes, where we will reflect on the life of discipleship that Jesus describes in the Sermon on the Mount. Leaving Galilee, we will stop at Bet Shean, the largest archeological site in the Holy Land. We will then drive down the Jordan River Valley until we stop at the old tel of Jericho and view the 11,000-year-old tower that has been discovered there. After this we will visit Herod’s Palace at Jericho and reflect on Christ’s commitment to “seek and save the lost.” We will stop at the traditional site of Jesus’ baptism, where we will renew our commitment to walk as his disciples. Our Sunday will conclude with a worship service at a wilderness overlook, followed by dinner and overnight in Jericho. (B, D)

“A rich spiritual time of immersion in sights, places, Scripture, and the truth of God with us.”
— K.J.
MONDAY, OCTOBER 25
Ein Gedi, Masada, Qumran, Dead Sea, Jericho

We will begin our day at Ein Gedi, an oasis in the wilderness where David hid from Saul. From there we will travel to Masada, whose summit we will reach by cable car. This is the fortress at which the Zealots made their last stand against the Romans. We will then visit Qumran, the site of the Dead Sea Scrolls community. We will conclude our day by taking time to float in the Dead Sea and then return to Jericho. (B, D)

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26
Herodium, Bethlehem

Today we’ll travel through Bethany to the Herodium, Herod’s palace near Bethlehem, where we will examine the heartache surrounding Jesus’ birth described in Matthew’s Gospel. From there, we will visit the Al Basma Center for adults with special needs. At the center, we will gain insight into the lives of Christians today in the Holy Land. We will then go to the Shepherds’ Fields, where we will reflect on Luke’s story of the birth of Jesus. Part of our time in Bethlehem will also include stops at the Tent of Nations Farm and the Banksy Museum, where we will gain insights into the current Palestinian situation. We will spend the night at a hotel in Bethlehem. (B, D)

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27
Jerusalem

In the morning we will head to Jerusalem to visit Yad Vashem, Israel’s official memorial to the Jewish victims of the Holocaust. The origin of its name is from a Biblical verse: “And to them will I give in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name (Yad Vashem) that shall not be cut off.” We will also go to the Israel Museum, where we will see a model of first-century Israel at the time of Christ. While there we will tour the Shrine of the Book, which tells the story of the Dead Sea Scrolls. Our afternoon will be free to explore the Old City of Jerusalem. In the evening, we hope to have a conversation with members of the Parents’ Circle, a fellowship of Jewish and Palestinian parents who have experienced the violent death of children in the conflict. We will stay the rest of our time in Jerusalem near the Old City. (B, D)

“My heart and spirit are overflowing with what the Lord did in my life.” – L.S.
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28

Jerusalem

We begin our day walking through the Temple Mount, viewing the Dome of the Rock and Al Aqsa Mosque. Following this we will visit the Western Wall, Judaism’s holiest site. From there we explore the City of David excavations and have an opportunity to walk through Hezekiah’s Tunnel, which ends at the Pool of Siloam. Next, we will visit St. Peter’s in Gallicantu where we will see a prison that is typical of the one Jesus might have been in during the night of his arrest and trial. We then visit the Wohl Museum, which houses a palatial home thought by some to be the High Priest’s residence where Jesus had his trial before the Jewish leaders. We will end our day at the Davidson Center’s excavations of the Southern Stairs just south of the Temple Mount. (B, D)

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29

Jerusalem

Following the path of Jesus in his suffering, death and resurrection, we’ll start our day at the Mount of Olives, descending the road he traveled on Palm Sunday. We will pause for times of reflection at Dominus Flevit and Gethsemane. Then we will enter the city near St. Anne’s Church, where we will reflect on Christ’s healing powers by the Pool of Bethesda. We will remember the price he paid for our healing by walking in his “Good Friday” steps from Pilate’s Judgment Hall and the Lithostrotos, past the Arch of Ecce Homo, down Via Dolorosa to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. From there we will walk to the Garden Tomb for a worship service during which we will reflect on what we have learned during our pilgrimage together. We will enjoy a farewell dinner at the Cardo Restaurant. (B, D)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30

Return to the U.S.

Very early this morning, we’ll transfer to Ben Gurion Airport to check in for our return flights to Chicago. We are certain that your time in the Holy Land has been an inspirational and richly rewarding experience. (B, Lin flight)
