A Few Things You Can Expect From Us:

All staff will go through additional Covid-19 specific health, safety, and sanitation training in addition to standard food safety training.

Additional staffing will be assigned to consistently clean and sanitize all common touch items, the beverage stations, tables, and chairs as guests leave.

Residential dining will continue by observing physical distancing guidelines, decreasing capacity in locations, reimaging serving stations, and removing self-service items. All food will be to-go, with limited dining hall seating.

Directional signage will be laid down on flooring to create clear pathways for location entrance, station queue points, location flow, and location exit areas.

Checker stands will be equipped with Knight Shields dividers to

Knollcrest Dining Hall
Get the best all-around campus dining experience at Knollcrest Dining Hall. Our homie, spacious atmosphere is both inviting and safe for our campus community. Where students and faculty can come to escape the rigor of college life, eat fresh creative meals, and enjoy that sense of community you can only get at Knollcrest. We also offer The Zone, which features an allergy sensitive area for students to go and know that no known allergens were added to the food.
All About The Students
Student employment is not only a form of financial support while students pursue their education, but it also provides our student workers basic job skills that will assist them on their journey. Visit Workday and search Dining Service Student Worker to view our available positions.

Changes to Meal Plans
Students can upgrade their meal plan at any time. Meal plans can only be decreased during the first week of each semester.

Special Dietary Needs
Each meal period will have options that are allergen-friendly. All food items are clearly labeled to help diners meet their dietary needs.

Sick Meals
Not feeling well? The Sick Meal To-Go is now available for students who are not able to eat in the dining hall due to feeling ill. A designated friend or staff member will be able to pick up a meal from Knollcrest Dining Hall and bring to your dorm.

Cash or Credit at the Door
Meals for students can be purchased with Knight Bucks, cash, check, or card.
