Vehicles on campus: High School Students who are licensed drivers will not be able to drive themselves to the program. We prefer that all participating students be dropped-off and picked-up by a parent or guardian. In the case that parents/guardians are using a family member or friend of the family to drop-off or pick-up their child, please call our office at (616) 526-6749 to let someone on our staff know before the program begins.

Curfew: Each student is expected to be in their rooms by 11:30pm on the 1st evening of the program, and 11:00 pm on the 2nd evening. Violators of curfew will be subjected to dismissal from the program.

Boundaries: physical contact/ affection with other participants will not be permitted. A warning/ phone call to parent or guardian will be given the first time it is witnessed. If caught any time after, parents will be called and asked to pick up the student- subjecting to dismissal from the program.

Visitors:
- No visitors of the opposite sex will be allowed in the hotel rooms. There will be designated social areas where all students can mingle and have fun!
- Participating students will not be allowed to have any outside visitors at the Prince Conference Center Hotel at any time, or leave the premises with outside visitors. Violation of these policies may result in immediate dismissal.

Drugs & Alcohol: Use of drugs and alcohol is prohibited. Violation of this policy will result in dismissal.

Weapons: The use of or possession of any type of weapon will result in call to campus safety, parent/guardian involvement, and immediate dismissal.

Smoking: Although Calvin is not a non-smoking campus, the rules for MLK students include a non-smoking policy. This includes the entire time of residency in the program on and off campus. Violation of this policy could result in dismissal.
• Calvin Property: All students are expected to use good judgment in the use of Calvin facilities. Misuse of any Calvin property can result in a fine or dismissal.

• Theft: Missing items of any kind should be reported to one of the MLK Leaders or Staff Members. Keep doors locked and valuables labeled to discourage theft. Anyone found guilty of stealing will be dismissed from the program.

• Electronics: Cell phones and iPads/tablets cannot be seen as a distraction during the program and must be used for program purposes such as: taking notes, posting quotes that you hear from speakers (thought provoking, positive or uplifting quotes), pictures with friends or MLK events, using the Bible App for Chapel and Church Service, calling parents when there is free time or breaks, and texting friends when there is a break. Using electronic devices for inappropriate uses such as taking inappropriate pictures, texting or taking a phone call during programming sessions, or cyber bullying is prohibited. Violation of these polices could result in dismal from the program.

• Noise: Students will show respect and consideration for other students in the program and other guests in the residence halls by avoiding excessive noise.

• Attendance: Mandatory attendance is expected of each participating student from the beginning to the end of the program.

• Hotel Services: calling room service to order meals or ordering movies on your hotel television is prohibited. Violation of this policy could result in a fee charge.

• Hotel Phones: Participants are not to be used as personal phones during your stay. Students who violate this rule will receive a phone call home to their parent or guardian.

• Language: Use of profanity or racial slurs are prohibited. Violation of this policy will result in a meeting with the Director of Pre-College Programs, and could result in dismissal from the program. Please be mindful that this weekend is designed to explore the philosophy of Martin Luther King Jr. and the Civil Rights Movement in effecting positive social change. So, there will be discussions, seminars and workshops focused around social justice events and racial issues. But, we are encouraging thoughtful and respectful language towards one another regardless of racial differences. Let’s all remember that we are brothers and sister in Christ, and our goal is to raise up MLK Young Leaders that are able to help in the fight towards racial reconciliation and positive community engagement.
