PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATION

DR. WIEBE BOER
CALVIN UNIVERSITY

THE TWENTY-SIXTH OF OCTOBER
TWO THOUSAND TWENTY-TWO Renewing Calvin’s Call
TO GLOBAL GOOD
LATIN SEAL

The Latin heart-in-hand seal became the official emblem of Calvin University in 1933. It emerged as early as 1910 in the university yearbook. The words prompte et sincere (promptly and sincerely) along with the image of an outstretched hand offering a heart surfaced four centuries earlier in the writings of the reformer John Calvin. He used the image to seal his letters in the 1540s. The motto prompte et sincere appears on his portrait dated 1566. The words Cor meum tibi offero Domine prompte et sincere (My heart I offer, Lord, promptly and sincerely) and image together stand as the insignia of the university today, inspiring the Calvin community to practice the university’s mission of thinking deeply, acting justly, and living wholeheartedly as Christ’s agents of renewal in the world.
MISSION
Calvin University equips students to think deeply, to act justly, and to live wholeheartedly as Christ’s agents of renewal in the world.

VISION
By 2030, Calvin will become a Christian liberal arts university with an expanded global influence. We envision Calvin University as a trusted partner for learning across religious and cultural differences and throughout the academy, the church, and the world.

Calvin University will be animated by a Reformed Christian faith that seeks understanding and promotes the welfare of the city and the healing of the world. We welcome all who are compelled by God’s work of renewal to join us in the formative pursuits of lifelong learning, teaching, scholarship, worship, and service.

A MOMENTOUS OCCASION

Greetings alumni, faculty, staff, students, friends, and esteemed guests:

We are grateful for your presence here today at the inauguration ceremony for Calvin University’s 12th president, Dr. Wiebe Boer. This is a momentous occasion at which we formally meet the Boer family, gain clarity around President Boer’s vision for Calvin University, and celebrate Calvin’s long history of living out its mission.

For nearly 150 years, Calvin has equipped students to think deeply, to act justly, and to live wholeheartedly as Christ’s agents of renewal in the world. President Boer aspires for Calvin to continue and deepen its commitment to this mission while extending welcome to a wider range of learners both locally and globally. His charge today is for Calvin to Renew its Call to Global Good.

You will learn more about this vision during his address this afternoon, and you will learn more about the Boer family and Calvin University throughout the event. Each element in today’s ceremony, from the participants selected to take the stage to the songs performed, was chosen by Wiebe and Joanna and the Inauguration Ceremony Planning Committee, symbolizing both the past and the future of Calvin University. Notes throughout the physical program explain the significance of each element. We hope this added insight will help deepen your appreciation for the Boer family and Calvin University. Enjoy today’s celebration!

Sincerely,

Bruce Los & Noah Toly

God So Loved
And Can It Be

* Please rise in body or spirit.
Verse 1
1 Come all you weary, come all you thirsty. Come to the well that never runs dry. Drink of the water, come and thirst no more.

Verse 2
2 Come all you sinners, come find his mercy. Come to the table he will satisfy. Taste of his goodness, find what you're looking for.

Refrain 1
For God so loved the world that he gave us his one and only Son to save us. Whoever believes in him will live forever.

Verse 3
3 Bring all your failures, bring your addictions. Come lay them down at the foot of the cross. Jesus is waiting there with open arms.

Refrain 2
God so loved the world that he gave us his one and only Son to save us. Whoever believes in him will live forever. The pow'r of hell forever defeated. Now it is well, I'm
God So Loved

God so loved, God so loved the world. Praise God, praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise him, praise him for the wonders of his love. Praise God, praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise him, praise him for the wonders of his love.

For God so loved the world that he gave us his one and only Son to save. For God so loved the world that he gave us his one and only Son to save. Who ever believes in him will live forever. The pow'r of hell for ever defeated. Now it is well, I'm walking in freedom. For God so loved, God so loved the world.

Verse 4

4 Bring all your failures, bring your addictions. Come lay them down at the foot of the cross. Jesus is waiting, God so loved the world.

And Can It Be

1 And can it be that I should gain an interest in the Savior’s blood? Died he for me, who caused his pain—me, who caused his bitter death? A-mazing love! How can it be that you, my Lord, should die for me?

2 He left his Father’s throne above—so free, so infinite his grace—emptied himself of all but love, and bled for Adam’s helpless race! What mercy this, immense and free, for, O my God, it found out me!

3 Long my imprisoned spirit lay fast bound in sin and nature’s night. Your sunrise turned that night to day; I woke—the dungeon flamed with light! My chains fell off, your voice I knew; I rose, went out, and followed you.

4 No condemnation now I dread, for Christ, and all in him, is mine! A-live in him, my living Head, and clothed in righteousness divine, bold I approach the eternal throne and claim the crown, through Christ, my own.

Refrain
   A-mazing love! How amazing love! How can it be that you, my Lord, should die for me?
In green spaces, the young run drills—call their Cruyff turns Swange; say the footballs they orbit are honeycomb worlds.

The earth is sweeter, of course, and less justly carved. Because a globe of countries wobbles more than a sphere of polygons, we cannot call this planet rung with angels’ footfalls our plaything. But neither can we say we are not called to play. How will we set anything right, after all, apart from daring? How will we imagine the stakes of the gift cleft from its joy? Consider the halfbacks box stepping around soccer balls; there is not much difference between their grace and their grans’; the old ladies’ Heisman jigs, the rugs they cut, dancing church-aisle runners to ribbons. But then, we are all practicing, vivid with a glory we do not own, even we who tiptoe, hoping no one takes our shyness for ballet: God does not love a tepid dance. Which is to say, let us together sweat, training for Cana; our coaches grans and kings, let us practice abandon. God, credit us with glories we’re too new to see.

Wiebe Boer
Wiebe Boer, PhD, has spent the past two decades serving in the private and social sectors in four countries on two continents. His work has consistently focused on leveraging private capital to create social impact.

Boer earned a doctorate and two master’s degrees from Yale University and a bachelor’s degree from Calvin, all in history. He has served professionally in economic development, management consulting, philanthropy, and impact investing. For the past 12 years, Boer lived in Lagos, Nigeria, most recently serving as CEO of All On, a renewable energy investment fund of Shell.

In March 2022, the Presidential Search Committee of Calvin University asked Boer ’97 to serve as the university’s 12th president. That decision was approved by the Calvin University Board of Trustees and presented to the Christian Reformed Church in North America (CRCNA).

Boer brings a unique combination and depth of experience back to his alma mater. His life’s work has centered on creating welcoming and flourishing communities. He is now excited to innovate and collaborate alongside a talented faculty and staff in pursuit of Calvin’s ambitious vision—and to articulate that vision in a way that gains momentum both locally and globally.

Born and raised in Nigeria as the son of CRC missionaries, Boer holds citizenship in the Netherlands, Canada, and the United States. He is married to Joanna Bachew Boer ’03, who was born and raised in Trinidad and Tobago, holds a master’s degree in human resource management from the University of London, and is most recently the CEO of Empire Jane, a Nigerian soft home furnishings company. The couple have four boys: Jehan, Stephan, Gerrit, and Markus.

At Calvin, students find a place where Reformed Christian faith engages with rigorous academic inquiry. Students explore more than 100 academic options, engage in more than 100 research opportunities in the humanities and sciences, participate in off-campus study on five continents, and take advantage of a multitude of leadership opportunities. Students participate in more than 60 student organizations and are involved in intramural sports, service-learning opportunities, theatre productions, academic lectures, concerts, and art exhibitions.

Calvin nurtures a community of Christian faith through daily chapel, campus-wide Bible study, and many worship opportunities. The university’s Christ-centered faculty intentionally integrate faith into every academic discipline.

Calvin’s campus spans 400 wooded acres in the vibrant city of Grand Rapids, Michigan. The university offers students remarkable resources, from top-flight research and design spaces that promote collaboration and innovation to state-of-the-art performance venues and athletic facilities that showcase Calvin’s excellence in both the arts and athletics. The university recently completed the 15,000-square-foot School of Business building, which incorporates modern technology and business design. The campus also includes a flourishing 100-acre ecosystem preserve, providing the community with opportunities for recreation, research, and respite.
