Departure

The day of departure has arrived! Meet at the Grand Rapids Gerald R. Ford International Airport to check in for the flights to Germany. Our adventure is beginning! (D-in flight)

Tuesday, May 6

Arrive in Frankfurt > Eisenach

Guten Tag, and welcome to Frankfurt! After collecting our luggage, we meet our tour manager and board the waiting motorcoach. The first drive of our tour takes us to Eisenach, located on the northwestern edge of the Thuringian Forest, where Luther went to school and where Bach was born and spent the first ten years of his life. Upon arrival, visit St. George's Church, where Bach was baptized, and the Luther Museum, housed in one of the oldest surviving half-timbered houses in Thuringia. We may also see remains of the Dominican Latin School, attended by both Bach and Luther. Enjoy a welcome dinner and a good night's sleep at our hotel in Eisenach. (B-in flight, D)

Wednesday, May 7

Eisenach > Erfurt

After a hearty German breakfast, impressive Wartburg Castle awaits! Perched on a rocky spur above town, it was here that Luther worked on his translation of the New Testament from the original Greek into German. See the Knights' Hall, dining room, Wartburg Museum, and Luther's room. Then we head to Erfurt, the "Town of Flowers." Upon arrival, visit the Augustinian Monastery to see where Luther once lived and worked. Also see Erfurt Cathedral, the largest and oldest church in the city. Have some free time to peruse the Krämerbrücke (Merchant's Bridge), a medieval bridge structure lined with houses and shops. After a group dinner, Suzanne and Jim will give an evening lecture. (B, D)

Thursday, May 8

Erfurt > Weimar > Erfurt

Today we take an excursion to Weimar, a city known for its cultural heritage. Bach spent more of his career here than in any other place besides Leipzig. It later became the center of the Golden Age of German culture, symbolized by influential writer Johann Wolfgang von Goethe. Visit the City Church of Saints Peter and Paul (Herder Church), a major Protestant monument and the place where five of Johann Sebastian Bach's children were baptized, and the Goethe Residence. Goethe lived in this Baroque house for more than 50 years, and the museum contains exhibits from his massive collection of treasures. Return to Erfurt, where the evening is free for an independent dinner. (B)

Friday, May 9

Buchenwald > Jena > Leipzig

Visit nearby Buchenwald this morning, one of Nazi Germany's largest concentration camps where almost 300,000 people were interred. Following this sobering visit, we venture to Jena, a gathering spot for the most important German Romantics. While here, visit Friedrich Schiller's Garden House at the university as well as the Romantikerhaus Jena, a museum located in the former home of philosopher Johann Gottlieb Fichte. Then continue to Leipzig, a city steeped in musical tradition. It was here that Johann Sebastian Bach spent his most productive years, Richard Wagner was born, and Friedrich von Schiller composed his "Ode to Joy" in a house outside town. Check in at our hotel for a three-night stay and dinner. We plan to attend a classical music concert this evening (subject to availability). (B, D)

Saturday, May 10

Köthen > Leipzig

During an excursion to Köthen today, take a walking tour past Bach's home and St. Agnus-Kirche, where he worshipped. Also visit Köthen Castle, where Bach led the court orchestra and much of his secular music debuted. Built in the 13th century, the castle was almost continuously used as a home by noble families. Return to Leipzig for a free evening. (B)

Sunday, May 11

Leipzig

Our day in Leipzig includes free time to attend a morning worship service (or other options noted below), lunch at a beer garden, and a guided walking tour of the city, during which we see the Old Town Hall and visit St. Thomas Church. It was here that Bach was cantor for 27 years and Luther's sermon in 1539 introduced the Reformation to this part of Germany. Also visit the Bach Museum, an interactive, multimedia exhibition of the life and work of J.S. Bach. Free time options include walking Leipzig's Music Trail or visiting St. Nicholas Church (rendezvous point for the "Peaceful Revolution" in 1989), the Mendelssohn House, the Wagner Museum, or the Monument to the Battle of the Nations. (B, L)

Monday, May 12
Dresden

Travel to lovely Dresden, the capital of Saxony and a center of culture. Although it was nearly destroyed towards the end of World War II, Dresden’s architectural masterpieces, dating from the 18th century, have been successfully restored. Here we visit the Frauenkirche (Church of Our Lady) and see the Semper Opera and Albertplatz. Also visit the Residenzschloss (Royal Palace), the seat of Saxon electors and kings since 1485. The inside of the palace has been reconstructed to present various periods of the palace’s long history. Following some free time, we reconvene for dinner, and we hope to attend a concert or opera performance (subject to availability). (B, D)

Tuesday, May 13
Meissen > Dresden

Enjoy a relaxing cruise on the Elbe River, and an excursion to nearby Meissen today. Meissen is known around the world for its beautiful Meissen porcelain made from kaolin, which is still mined nearby. During a visit to the Royal Saxon Porcelain Manufactory, which opened in 1710 and moved to its current location in 1865, see demonstrations of the painting, fabrication, and firing process, as well as a large collection of the finished product. Afterward, we return to Dresden, where the rest of the day and evening are free for individual pursuits and an independent dinner. (B)

Wednesday, May 14
Potsdam > Berlin

Head to Potsdam today, an attractive city on the border with Berlin. Here we visit the ornate Sanssouci Palace, a Rococo masterpiece and UNESCO World Heritage Site. It was the summer home of Frederick the Great, the former King of Prussia, who challenged Bach to a composition showdown here in 1747. Also visit Schloss Cecilienhof, where the Potsdam Conference took place in 1945, attended by Harry S. Truman, Winston Churchill, and Joseph Stalin. Our journey continues to Berlin, Germany’s cosmopolitan capital, where we check in at our hotel for a three-night stay. This evening, we hope to have a representative of the Berliner Stadtmission join us for dinner and a talk about their mission to the displaced and refugees in Berlin. (B, D)

Berlin

Our day begins with a bus and walking tour of Berlin, during which we see such famous sites as Unter den Linden, the Brandenburg Gate, Museum Island, the Reichstag, and the Kurfürstendamm—an area filled with cafés, restaurants, and fashionable shops. Stop to visit Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church, a symbol of peace and reconciliation in the city. The afternoon is free to continue exploring the city, with the option of joining Jim and Suzanne to view some of Johann Sebastian Bach’s manuscripts. The evening is free to choose from one of Berlin’s many restaurants. (B)

Friday, May 16
Berlin

We continue our exploration of Berlin, beginning with visits to the Berlin Wall Memorial and the Checkpoint Charlie. This museum contains exhibits about attempts to cross under, over, or through the Berlin Wall, which separated the city from 1961 to 1989. The afternoon is free to sightsee and shop on our own—the options are endless! In the evening, we celebrate the end of a wonderful tour of Germany with a farewell dinner. (B, D)

Transfer to Berlin’s airport this morning to check in for our flights back to Grand Rapids. (B, L-in flight)

By signing the registration form/agreeing to the terms in TRIP, you agree to sharing your personal data for the purpose of making travel agreements on your behalf.

The cost of your tour includes:

Air transportation from Grand Rapids to Frankfurt and from Berlin back to Grand Rapids, with other departure cities available upon request, with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier's code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration's (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. TSA's privacy policy, as well as additional details, can be found at tsa.gov using the keywords Secure Flight. Witte takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many European cities, sightseeing is often done on foot or via public transportation.

Accommodations in moderate first-class to standard first-class hotels based on two people sharing a room with private facilities. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class properties are selected. The supplement for single accommodations is $630. If you register alone but want a roommate, we will do our best to assign one. Shared accommodation bed configurations vary by destination. Separate twin beds cannot be guaranteed. If a single room must be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Meals. Breakfast daily, one lunch, and six dinners as indicated in the itinerary. Dinners do not include beverages.

Tour Personnel. A multi-lingual tour manager to accompany the group from arrival in Frankfurt until departure from Berlin. The tour manager may be assisted by local guides as needed.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan. For your convenience, Witte Travel offers a travel protection plan designed by Travelix Insurance Services. Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport book to travel internationally. If you already have a passport book, check its expiration date now since the country visited on this tour requires passports to be valid for at least three months beyond the traveler's intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport book or need a new one, apply as soon as possible as processing times can take months. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver's license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to exit a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: <https://www.us-passport-service-guide.com/minor-travel-consent-form.html>The sample form is a guide only. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. Important note: Parents are responsible to contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm all travel entry and exit requirements, which may include obtaining additional notarized documentation.

HEALTH DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. You are responsible to make absolutely certain to have the proper immunizations and required documentation of such immunizations before travel. Witte shall not assume responsibility for the accuracy of health requirements or vaccination documentation prior to departure or upon landing at the final destination. See your health practitioner for advice. Prior to travel, required inoculations, if any, must be recorded by your health practitioner on a valid vaccination certificate, and you must carry for proof of inoculation where required. If you are concerned about taking any medications or receiving certain inoculations, and adequate timing of such inoculations relative to your travel booking, consult your health practitioner BEFORE booking. Check the U.S. State Department websites <http://travel.state.gov> for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, the USA Centers for Disease Control <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list/> and the World Health Organization <http://www.who.int/en/relating-to-health-issues>.

You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 26 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or changes in group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature on the registration form indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.
