Tuesday, October 21 Arrive Cairo

After changing planes, we arrive in Cairo and meet a representative who will assist with passport control and luggage claims. Board the waiting motorcoach and transfer to central Cairo for a tour of the Coptic part of the city. Here we see the remains of the old Fortress of Babylon, built at the time of the Romans in Egypt to protect the country from invading enemies. The walls of the fortress enclose the Church of St. Sergius, which is built on a crypt considered to be one of the resting places of the Holy Family during their flight to Egypt 2,000 years ago. Our day includes lunch at a restaurant and a visit to the Coptic Museum. Then we check in at the hotel for a four-night stay and an opportunity to freshen up. Relax over a welcome dinner. (B-in flight, L, D)

Wednesday, October 22

Saqqara > Giza > Cairo

After a good night's sleep and our first Egyptian breakfast, we take an excursion to Saqqara, the necropolis of Memphis that is home to the Step Pyramid, the first limestone structure ever built. Explore the 4,350-year-old colored tombs, see ancient hieroglyphics that have been engraved on the walls for thousands of years, visit tombs that are off the beaten path, and explore the Imhotep Museum. Then visit the Pyramids of Giza, which are sure to inspire us as the only one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World that has survived to this day. Enjoy lunch at the 9 Pyramids Lounge Restaurant, with wonderful views of the pyramids, and an optional camel ride. Before returning to Cairo, visit the mysterious Sphinx, an ancient figure shrouded in legend. Our interesting day concludes with dinner. (B, L, D)

Thursday, October 23

Cairo

Today, we visit a socioeconomically vulnerable Cairo community to explore how they are overcoming the odds and finding hope in the midst of their challenges. This group, Cairo's garbage recyclers, is responsible for collecting the city's trash; they also have small home-based enterprises that enable them to recycle up to 80% of the garbage they collect, a remarkable rate for any country! We start by visiting the Association for the Protection of the Environment, where local women learn a marketable skill like weaving, quilting, or embroidery and turn scraps into beautiful handicrafts. In addition to vocational training, the women can also continue their education and get healthcare for their families. After lunch, we head nearby to St. Simon Monastery and the Cave Church, built into the side of Mokattam Mountain. This is the largest church in the whole Middle East! We also visit Cairo's Citadel, with the Muhammad Ali Mosque and some great views of the city. Return to the hotel and enjoy a group dinner. (B, L, D)

Friday, October 24

Cairo

Today we plan to attend a Friday morning worship service in Cairo. Afterward, have lunch at a restaurant and then visit the new Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM), home to an extensive collection of 120,000 ancient Egyptian antiquities. Highlights include the Hanging Obelisk, the statue of King Ramses II, and the Grand Staircase, among others. {Note: The museum isn't fully open, but a partial visit is possible.} After a chance to refresh at the hotel, relax over dinner. (B, L, D)

Saturday, October 25

Flight to Luxor > East Bank of Luxor & Embark

This morning, transfer to Cairo's airport to check in for our flight to Luxor. Upon arrival in Luxor, we visit the Temple of Karnak, the largest religious complex that has ever been built for a god. The temple is dedicated to the god Amun-Ra, the chief creator god in Ancient Egypt. Explore the Temple of Khonsu before we embark on our luxury Nile River cruise ship, the Steigenberger Regency. After lunch on board, visit the Temple of Luxor, constructed in approximately 1,400 BCE. This large Ancient Egyptian temple complex is located on the East Bank of the Nile in the city known as Luxor today (ancient Thebes). In the Egyptian language, it is known as the "southern sanctuary." Return to the ship for dinner and evening entertainment. (B, L, D)

Sunday, October 26

West Bank of Luxor > Edfu

Following breakfast on board, we cross to the West Bank of the Nile to visit the Valley of the Kings, with the tomb of King Ramses VI and the famous tomb of King Tutankhamun, where more than five thousand objects were discovered—including jewelry, alabaster, and funeral furniture. Also visit the Temple of Hatshepsut, dedicated to the only female pharaoh who dressed and ruled as a king. It is considered a masterpiece of ancient architecture with its three massive terraces that rise above the desert floor on the cliffs of the Nile's West Bank. Have lunch on board as we sail to Edfu, and later dinner with evening entertainment. (B, L, D)

Monday, October 27

Edfu > Kom Ombo > Edfu

The Temple of Horus in Edfu, one of the most well-preserved sites in Egypt, awaits us today. Its architecture is intact, and it contains a wealth of legible inscriptions. This temple is dedicated to the falcon god Horus, the deity of the fertile Egyptian lands near the Nile. Several of the inscriptions found here tell the story of the conflict between Horus and Seth, the deity of the surrounding Egyptian desert, as Horus seeks revenge for the murder of his father, Osiris. Have lunch on board as we cruise to Kom Ombo to visit the temple dedicated to the crocodile and falcon gods. Also, stop at the Crocodile Mummification Museum to see crocodile mummies that are thousands of years old. Return to the ship for dinner and this evening's entertainment. (B, L, D)

Tuesday, October 28
Aswan > Agilkia Island > Aswan

Our morning will be spent on board as we cruise to Aswan. Here we transfer to the pier and take a short motorboat to Agilkia Island, where we find the Temple of Philae. This temple is dedicated to Isis, the goddess of love and passion. The island and temple are in the reservoir of the Aswan Low Dam, downstream from Aswan Dam and Lake Nasser. Time allowing, we may also visit the Nubian Museum in Aswan. Enjoy a leisurely boat ride by felucca (a traditional wooden sailing boat) down the Nile and around Elephantine Island. A glass of wine accompanies views of the setting sun, and our final night on board the ship concludes with dinner and entertainment. (B, L, D)

Wednesday, October 29
Disembark Aswan > Flight to Cairo

We disembark from the Steigenberger Regency and transfer to Aswan's airport to check in for the flight to Cairo. Back in Cairo, we take a walking tour through the Old Islamic Quarter with its narrow streets, bustling roadside shops, and "wekalas," where all sorts of wares are traded. We begin at one of the Old Cairo gates, Bab al-Futuh, and walk down El Moez Street to reach the vibrant Khan El-Khalili Bazaar. Originally founded as a watering stop for caravans in the 14th century, this market has grown to vast proportions, and it is reputed to be the largest bazaar in the Middle East. A festive farewell lunch at a restaurant and some time to shop at the bazaar will cap off an amazing journey! Transfer to a hotel at Cairo's airport to pack and rest for the trip home. (B, L)

Thursday, October 30
Return

This morning we check in for our flights back to Chicago at the Cairo International Airport. Those returning to West Michigan will then travel by motorcoach for a late evening arrival. (Meals-in flight)

Tour Pace

MODERATE – Travelers considering this cruise/tour must be aware of existing challenges in Egypt for those with mobility, balance, and respiratory issues. While picturesque landscapes and cultural experiences await, navigating cobblestone streets, uneven terrain and narrow pathways pose difficulties. Passengers who require any mobility device must be accompanied by a physically able companion who enables them to keep pace with walking tours on this trip. Taxis or other transportation used to "catch up" to the group are at the passenger's expense. Activity levels vary from day-to-day. Sightseeing is often a brisk walk over several miles each day on uneven ground. Your safety and comfort are our top priorities. We are committed to ensuring an inclusive and enjoyable experience for all travelers.

Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport book to travel internationally. If you already have a passport book, check its expiration date now since the country visited on this tour requires passports to be valid for at least six months beyond the traveler's intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport book or need a new one, apply as soon as possible as processing times can take months. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. A visa for entry into Egypt is required. The cost is included for U.S. and Canadian citizens. If you already have a passport, check now to be sure it has at least two blank visa pages. If you do not have enough pages you will need to apply for a new passport as soon as possible. Witte Travel will contact you with instructions for completing the visa application. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver's license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to exit a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: <https://www.us-passport-service-guide.com/minor-travel-consent-form.html> The sample form is a guide only. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. Important note: Parents are responsible to contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm all travel entry and exit requirements, which may include obtaining additional notarized documentation.

HEALTH DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. You are responsible to make absolutely certain to have the proper immunizations and required documentation of such immunizations before travel. Witte shall not assume responsibility for the accuracy of health requirements or vaccination documentation prior to departure or upon landing at the final destination. See your health practitioner for advice. Prior to travel, required inoculations, if any, must be recorded by your health practitioner on a valid vaccination certificate, and you must carry for proof of inoculation where required. If you are concerned about taking any medications or receiving certain inoculations, and adequate timing of such inoculations relative to your travel booking, consult your health practitioner BEFORE booking. Check the U.S. State Department websites <http://travel.state.gov> for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, the USA Centers for Disease Control <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list/> and the World Health Organization <http://www.who.int/en/relating-to-health-issues>.

You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 33 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or changes in group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature on the registration form indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.

Witte shall not be deemed to be in breach of these terms and conditions or otherwise be liable to you, by reason of delay in performance, or by non-performance, of any of its obligations hereunder to the extent that any such delay or non-performance is due to any Force Majeure.

If Witte, and/or any of its travel suppliers, are affected by Force Majeure, they shall be entitled to, and may in their sole and absolute discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the trip. Payment of any refund by Witte to you as a result of the non-performance of any obligations due to Force Majeure shall remain in its sole and absolute discretion, although Witte shall use its reasonable efforts to reimburse you where possible. However, Witte shall be entitled to deduct from any refund recoverable the reasonable actual and potential costs to Witte of the Force Majeure and applicable cancellation fees.
