Fall 2018 Week by week schedule for Leaders

Week 3, Sept. 24-28

- Share experiences with question 2
- Pick question 3
- Give instruction for Creative response to your question.

Write a haiku for next week based on your question 3.

As you live with this question this week, sometime toward the end, day 5 or 6 or 7, write a haiku to describe what you are experiencing. This is meant to be fun, a creative response—don't make it a chore or too laborious of a task.

Haiku: a style of verse, of Japanese origin, written in 3 lines

Line 1: 5 syllables

Line 2: 7 syllables

Line 3: 3- 5 syllables

Write about what you observe – in yourself, around you, where you see/feel/sense God at work through your engagement with this question.

Characteristics of a haiku (guidelines, not rules).

- A focus on nature.
- A "season word" such as "snow" which tells the reader what time of year it is.
- Instead of saying how a scene makes him or her feel, the poet shows the details that caused that emotion. If the sight of an empty winter sky made the poet feel lonely, describing that sky can give the same feeling to the reader.

Here are three examples of haiku from Basho Matsuo (1644-1694), considered the greatest haiku poet:

An old silent pond...
A frog jumps into the pond,
splash! Silence again.

Autumn moonlight—
a worm digs silently
into the chestnut.
